Morgan, 1998 This book is a rather personal history of an academic publishing house I chose to call Three Acorns Press in the narrative I did this to protect nearly 500 authors and the publishing house itself Not that what I had to say was scandalous or problematic but rather I wanted to keep personalities out of this story It is not an autobiographical study of the author per se and it is hopefully not the end of the publishing house which has over one hundred and twenty five titles in print My personal history is somewhat more complicated and the story of this publishing house has not yet ended The following is however my own recollections of how I began this publishing house and how and why it has grown to be a house of reputation the winner of the American Library Association Academic Book of the Year award and cited three times by the Ford Foundation and the National Research Council as a leader in the field I did not set out from school to be a publisher Though I have always been a lover of books I never dreamed of actually publishing them But a publisher is what I am and this is my story of how it all came about     The Academy of Music Concert Book ,1858     The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Dr

Mark Silverberg,2013-04-28 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg s detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets     The Academy ,1909     The Academy - Her Song in His Heart C.
