The African Experience with Higher Education J. F. Ade Ajayi, L. K. H. Goma, Ampah G. Johnson, 1996-01-01 There have been institutions of higher learning for centuries in Africa but the phenomenal growth has taken place in the last fifty years first in the later days of colonialism and then in the heady days of independence and commodity boom Without them there would have been no development The three highly distinguished authors have written the first comprehensive assessment of universities and higher education in Africa south of the Sahara As can be seen from their biographies they draw on experience from both francophone and anglophone Africa and from teaching both in the sciences and the arts

The African Experience Roland Oliver, 2018-03-05 This masterpiece of scholarship and compression the second edition of The African Experience covers the entire span of human history across the African continent from the earliest emergence of hominids in eastern and southern Africa up to the present day Drawing on more than forty years of teaching and research Professor Oliver arranges the book thematically beginning with the human colonization of the different regions of Africa the origins of food production and the formation of African languages The achievements of Ancient Egypt are placed in context with the developments in the rest of the continent and the spread of Judaism Christianity and Islam peoples of the book The tradition of urban settlement is traced especially in western Africa as well as the emergence of large and complex societies formed by the interaction of pastoralists and cultivators in eastern and southern Africa The extent and nature of slavery in Africa is fully discussed together with the external slave trade and the caravan trade in precolonial times This leads to an analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of African political systems and why from the early nineteenth century onwards these systems were unable to withstand political pressure from abroad and the ensuing colonization The colonial partition of Africa saw the rapid amalgamation of small units through which considerable modernization was achieved at the expense of the indigenous structures and through the exploitation of the African peoples Later chapters describe the birth of modern African nation states at a time of widespread belief in state planning now being questioned as the political elites of black Africa begin to review their single party systems This new edition sees a number of revisions including a new chapter on the 1990s when the end of the Cold War left Africa free at last to try to solve its own problems

The African Experience in Colonial Virginia Colita Nichols Fairfax, 2021-01-14 The State of Virginia recognizes the 1619 landing of Africans at Point Comfort present day Hampton as a complicated beginning This collection of new essays reckons with this historical fact with discussions of the impacts 400 years later Chapters cover different perspectives about the 20 and odd who landed offering insights into how enslavement continues to affect the lives of their descendants The often overlooked experiences of women in enslavement are discussed

Globalization, Human Security, and the African Experience Caroline Thomas, Peter Wilkin, 1999 Eleven contributions explore security from a human rather than a state perspective and illustrate this by drawing on case material from sub Saharan Africa They offer an alternative to the realist state centered militaristic male dominated terrain of orthodox security and strategic studies and study such issues as feminist perspectives justice economic genocide in Rwanda security in the new world order and the erosion of the state and the decline of race Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The African Experience Vincent B. Khapoya, 1998 This book provides an introduction to Africa covering its physical attributes history social structure and culture It emphasizes norms values and historical experiences as the key variables that define who the people are rather than labeling them as tribes Describes the main traditional cultural forms and institutions found in Africa Explores the geography and demography of the African continent Takes a critical look at how the Africans have done since they inherited or recovered political power from the European colonial masters the problems they have encountered the forces that have influenced leaders in their choice of strategies in nation building or economic development political and economic reforms

Towards an Understanding of the African Experience from Historical and Contemporary Perspectives Festus Ugboaja Ohaegbulam, 1990 This introductory survey provides a rich understanding of the African experience which until recently either had been omitted from the curriculum of institutions of higher learning or was distorted in written and oral literature The book identifies the post World War II civil rights movement in America and the independence revolution in Africa as the most decisive forces that generated interest in the study of the African black experience Includes four theoretical models for interpreting the black experience The author discusses the place and role of Africa in the development of human civilization focusing on Africa's Nile Valley civilizations and Western Sudanic empires It probes aspects of traditional African culture including the family traditional political institutions and religion and analyzes the impact on Africa and its peoples of such historical traumas as slavery colonialism and decolonization

The African Experience in Literature and Ideology Abiola Irele, 1990

African Experience in the Application of the Development Aid Effectiveness Principles Daniel Kipleel Borter, Nadeem Malik, 2023-02-25 This book analyses the diffusion and implementation of Aid Effectiveness Principles in Kenya's agricultural sector Although Aid Effectiveness Principles represent a significant step in aid and development discourse studies on its implementation remain inadequate especially in the African context This book combines the perspectives of the Kenyan government donor representatives and small scale farmers The discussion on Kenya brings in comparative perspectives and therefore would have broader relevance to the African region in general It highlights a disconnect between the government and farmers concerning the ownership concept where farmers lack a voice in important policy matters The book shows that donors have exploited the weaknesses in government responses to interpret The Principles in ways that suit their strategic interests Consequently the book argues that the diffusion of Aid Effectiveness Principles has taken the form of symbolic imitation a form of policy diffusion where the policymakers choose policies for their symbolic value rather than their effectiveness

The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed

The African American Experience in Crime Fiction Robert E. Crafton, 2015-06-08 An immensely popular genre crime fiction has only in recent years been engaged significantly by African American authors Historically the racist stereotypes often central to crime fiction and the socially conservative nature of the genre presented problems for writing the black experience and the tropes of justice and restoration of social order have not resonated with authors who saw social justice as a work in progress Some African American authors did take up the challenge Pauline Hopkins Rudolph Fisher and Chester Himes led the way in the first half of the 20th century followed by Ishmael Reed s anti detective novels in the 1970s Since the 1990s Walter Mosley Colson Whitehead and Stephen L Carter health services case management and community planning The PhD Experience in African Higher Education John Mashayamombe, Ruth Murambadoro, uMbuso weNkosi, 2022-11-08 The PhD Experience in African Higher Education edited by Ruth Murambadoro John Mashayamombe and uMbuso weNkosi addresses the growing call to invest in the humanities and social sciences by exploring the nature of doctoral training in select institutions of higher learning in South Africa In the past two decades South Africa has become a key player in the global higher education landscape and dubbed the hub for doctoral training in Africa because of its developed educational infrastructure and highly ranked universities Given South Africa's positioning the contributors in this volume argue that the government donors universities and faculty have a socio legal duty to ensure that doctoral programs in the humanities and social sciences are not offered to amass numbers of African graduates but are grounded on equipping students with both hard and soft skills necessary to succeed This is achieved by offering skills training and research apprenticeships fostered in communities of practice because as the contributors show the humanities and social sciences are the backbone of society Furthermore they argue that treating doctoral candidates as equal partners is emancipatory because intellectual projects are best nurtured through collaborative learning The Quest for a Theological Connection with the (African Holocaust) Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade in Africans Dr. Robinson A. Milwood, 2017-09-13 The quest for a theological connection with the heinous transatlantic chattel slave trade in Africans is an academically and intellectually lignum vitae nut to crack It must be cracked by all means necessary to do a measured dose of justice to the subject of the slave trade that British academic and encomium scholars have been treating for centuries with impunity that it has no relevance theologically and philosophically ignoring the historical and racial facts that British proslavery groups defended and opposed the abolition of the brutal and immoral forced enslavement of Africa on biblical grounds with a bent theology and misleading hermeneutics The notebook of Rev Dr James Ramsay is a solid evidence of how British proslavery movement operated This attitude was false groundless deceptive and above all a massive cover up of the iniquities and abomination of the slave trade in Africa by an extraordinary committee of presidium syndication which I shall deal with during the evolution of this significant thesis
