Culinary Aesthetics and Practices in Nineteenth-Century American Literature M. Drews, M. Elbert, 2009-10-26 Culinary Aesthetics and Practices in Nineteenth Century American Literature examines the preponderance of food imagery in nineteenth century literary texts Contributors to this volume analyze the social political and cultural implications of scenes involving food and dining and illustrate how aesthetic notions of culinary preparation are often undercut by the actual practices of cooking and eating As contributors interrogate the values and meanings behind culinary discourses they complicate commonplace notions about American identity and question the power structure behind food production and consumption
