The Actor As Storyteller An Introduction To Acting:

The Actor as Storyteller Bruce Miller, 2012-01-01 Book The Actor as Storyteller is intended for serious beginning actors. It opens with an overview explaining the differences between theater and its hybrid mediums, the part an actor plays in each of those mediums. It moves on to the acting craft itself with a special emphasis on analysis and choice making, introducing the concept of the actor as storyteller, then presents the specific tools an actor works with. Next, it details the process an actor can use to prepare for scene work and rehearsals, complete with a working plan for using the tools discussed. The book concludes with a discussion of mental preparation, suggestions for auditioning, a process for rehearsing a play, and an overview of the realities of show business. Included in this updated edition are: A detailed examination of script analysis of the overall play and of individual scenes; A sample of an actor's script filled with useful script notations; Two new short plays, one written especially for this text; Updated references, lists of plays, and recommended further reading. Dario Fo Joseph Farrell, Antonio Scuderi, 2000 Joseph Farrell and Antonio Scuderi present an international collection of essays re-evaluating the multifaceted performance art of Nobel laureate Dario Fo. The contributors, all of whom either have previously published on Fo or have worked with him, are the major Dario Fo scholars of three continents. Going beyond the Marxist criticism of the 1970s and 1980s, the editors and contributors try to establish an appropriate language in which to debate Fo's theatre. They seek to identify the core of Fo's work, the material that will be of lasting value. This involves locating Fo in history, examining the nature of his development through successive phases, incorporating his politics into a wider framework of radical dissent and setting his theatrical achievements in a context and a tradition. The essays cover every aspect of Dario Fo as actor, playwright, performer and songwriter. They also provide the historical background of Fo's theatre as well as in-depth analyses of specific works and the contribution of Franca Rame. Also included is a discussion of original artwork by Fo, including vignettes from his Nobel Prize acceptance speech.

Jason Robards Remembered Eugene O'Neill Society, 2002-04-03 Jason Robards won consecutive Oscars as best supporting actor for the films All the President's Men 1977 and Julia 1978 but he is particularly remembered for having created central roles in the later plays of Eugene O'Neill. This tribute honors Robards in two parts. Part One presents recent interviews of the late actor as well as articles by Arthur and Barbara Gelb which appeared in the New York Times on the occasions of the American premier of Long Day's Journey into Night 1956 and of the successful production of A Moon for the Misbegotten with Colleen Dewhurst 1974. Sheila Hickey Garvey writes of the 1956 production of Iceman and gives a brief history of Robards' work with the Circle in the Square Theatre, the theatre that began the Off Broadway theatrical movement of the 1950s. Stephen A. Black, Michael Manheim and Edward Shaughnessy write of seeing Robards perform in O'Neill plays. The O'Neill bibliographers Madeline Smith and Richard Eaton analyze the effect Robards' performances have had on subsequent performances and on scholarship about O'Neill's later plays. Zander Brietzke writes about the problem of performing O'Neill in the post-Robards era. Part Two contains more personal recollections of Jason Robards. Several of Robards' theatrical colleagues, Arvin Brown, Zoe Caldwell, Douglas Campbell, Blythe Danner, George Grizzard, the playwright A.R. Gurney, Shirley Knight, Paul Libin, Theodore Mann, Christopher Plummer, Kevin Spacey and Eli Wallach recall their times with the actor.
