

Historical Connections

Kumbh Mela bears a strong relation with history as the fair is almost eight hundred years old. The earliest record of Kumbh Mela was discovered in the writings of seventh century Chinese traveler Hiuen Tsang, who had witnessed the event during his travel to India with best travel agents. According to him, several pilgrims along with kings, saints, ministers and sages assembled on the banks of a river to take the holy dip at the beginning of two month long festival.
