Companion to the Gawain-poet Derek Brewer,Jonathan Gibson,1997 It ends with a discussion of the reception of the Morte Darthur from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries and a select bibliography The Knight on His Quest Piotr Sadowski,1996 This book offers an integrated interpretative analysis of the major thematic aspects of the English fourteenth century romance Sir Gawain and the Green Knight The chief aim of author Piotr Sadowski is to look at the contents of the narrative in their entirety and to take full advantage of the poem s exceptional and widely praised harmony of structure and design Within that design Sadowski focuses on the poem s presentation of the main protagonist and his adventures seen first of all as a generalized metaphor of the human life understood as a spiritual quest and in a more historical sense as an expression and critique of certain ideals values and anxieties that characterized the late medieval institutions of the court chivalry and the Church Sadowski built the interpretive framework of Sir Gawain from an eclectic theoretical base that he believes is most valuable and useful in approaching medieval literature The main focus of the study remains the literary text itself created by an author who communicates his view of the world through the poem Routledge Revivals: Medieval England (1998) Paul E.  of one of the most universal dialogic genres heroic flyting or the verbal duel in which the heroes prior to physical combat make boastful claims that must be backed up through action in the arena of public contesting Long recognized as an elemental behavioral paradigm in human consciousness the contest has only recently emerged as a factor in the formation of Western intellectual traditions and modes of discourse In presenting the verbal duel as a literary expression of the contest Ward Parks shows how flyting interfaces words and physical action He explores the place of flyting in the patterning of culture both Eastern and Western from Homeric and Old English martial narratives to current academic debate to such phenomena of popular culture as rap Parks studies flyting from a comparative standpoint to discover major generic and structural characteristics common to this activity in both its oral and written traditions Drawing his methodology from such fields as literary criticism socio biology linguistics and game theory he begins with an exploration of the nature and structure of contesting as it relates to flyting interactions He then examines the covert contract formation that binds the verbal and physical aspects of the duel analyzes the heroic generation of speeches and their dialogic interrelation in the flyting process itself and illustrates the adaptability of flyting patterns within a wide variety of cultural and ideological settings Originally
