Sixty Minute Heirlooms Searching For Babies:

Baby, Baby, Book 1 of the Family Heirlooms Series Karen Wiesner, 2014-07-21 Thirty seven year old Tamara Wolfe married her childhood sweetheart Robert right out of high school and proceeded to have a passel of children who fill her life to capacity With the last of her children in preschool Tamara decides to make a business out of her long time love of creating designer gift baskets She doesn't expect Robert to be against it from her first word Robert has always prided himself on giving Tamara the option of staying home to raise the children just as his father did before him Since birth it's been drilled into him that a man who doesn't provide for his family is the worst kind of loser Although they'd agreed years before their family was complete Robert considers that perhaps the cure for Tamara's restlessness is another baby All Tamara wants is a small space of time for herself Is she being selfish Or is God leading her to continue being an outdated model of the Proverbs 31 wife submissive but never equal

The Deeper the Roots Michael Tubbs, 2025-09-23. Insightful, emotional, and enraging. By sharing his story in gripping detail, Michael Tubbs embodies an old feminist tradition whereby the personal is political. He empowers us to fight for equal opportunities for our communities and encourages us to amass the courage to overcome loss and injustice. Ibram X. Kendi, National Book Award-winning author of Stamped from the Beginning and How to Be an Antiracist. The making of a visionary political leader and a blueprint for a more equitable country. Don't tell anybody our business. Michael Tubbs's mother often told him growing up: "For Michael, that meant a lot of things: don't tell anyone about the day-to-day struggle of being Black and broke in Stockton, CA; don't tell anyone the pain of having a father incarcerated for 25 years to life; don't tell anyone about living two lives: the brainy bookworm and the kid with the newest Jordans. And also, don't tell anyone about the particular joys of growing up with three moms: a Nana who never let him miss church, an Auntie who'd take him to the library any time, and a mother she called Daddy who schooled him in the wisdom of hip-hop and taught him never to take no for an answer." So for a long time, Michael didn't tell anyone his story. But as he went on to a scholarship at Stanford and an internship in the Obama White House, he began to realize the power of his experience, the need for his perspective in the halls of power. By the time he returned to Stockton to become in 2016 at age 26 its first Black mayor and the youngest ever mayor of a major American city, he knew his story meant something. The Deeper the Roots is a memoir astonishing in its candor, voice, and clarity of vision. Tubbs shares with us the city that raised him, his family of badass women, his life-changing encounters with Oprah Winfrey and Barack Obama, the challenges of governing in the 21st century, and everything in between en route to unveiling his compelling vision for America rooted in his experiences in his hometown. The Saturday Evening Post, 1915 Atkinson's Evening Post, and Philadelphia Saturday News, 1920 SCC Library has 1974-89 plus scattered issues. Play the Man Mark Batterson, 2017-05-02. Somewhere along the way, our culture lost its definition of manhood, leaving generations of men and men to be confused about their roles, responsibilities, relationships, and the reason God made them men. It's into this no-man's-land that New York Times bestselling author Mark Batterson declares his mantra for manhood: play the man. In this inspiring call to something greater, he helps men understand what it means to be a man of God by unveiling seven virtues of manhood. Mark shares inspiring stories of manhood, including the true story of the hero and martyr Polycarp, who first heard the voice from heaven say, "Play the man." Mark couples those stories with practical ideas about how to disciple the next generation of men. This is more than a book; it's a movement of men who will settle for nothing less than fulfilling their highest calling to be the man and the father God has destined them to be. Play the man. Make the man.
