Never before has such a wealth of information about storytelling traditions been gathered together. Storytelling is alive and well throughout the world as the approximately 100 articles by more than 90 authors make clear. Most of the essays average 2 000 words and discuss a typical storytelling event, give a brief sample text and provide theory from the folklorist. A comprehensive index is provided. Bibliographies afford the reader easy access to additional resources. The Public Library Quarterly, 1902

The Kansas City Public Library Quarterly Kansas City Public Library (Kansas City, Mo.), 1904 The Temple of Death A. C. Benson, Robert Hugh Benson, 2007. Undeservedly the weird and chilling ghost stories of Arthur Christopher Benson and Robert Hugh Benson have been neglected for far too long. As exercises in the art of luring the reader into a state of unease they are as potent as they were when the ink was barely dry on the page.
