Slow Learner Early Stories:

Slow Learner Thomas Pynchon, 1984 Slow Learner Thomas Pynchon, 2012-06-13 An exhilarating spectacle of greatness discovering its powers New Republic Funny and wise enough to charm the gravity from a rainbow All five of the pieces have unusual narrative vigor and inventiveness The New York Times Compiling five short stories originally written between 1959 and 1964 Slow Learner showcases Thomas Pynchon's writing before the publication of his first novel V The stories compiled here are The Small Rain Low lands Entropy Under the Rose and The Secret Integration along with an introduction by Pynchon himself that Time Magazine calls his first public gesture toward autobiography The Slow Learner, 1964 Thomas Pynchon and the Dark Passages of History David Cowart, 2012-01-15 Thomas Pynchon helped pioneer the postmodern aesthetic His formidable body of work challenges readers to think and perceive in ways that anticipate with humor insight and cogency much that has emerged in the field of literary theory over the past few decades For David Cowart Pynchon's most profound teachings are about history history as myth as rhetorical construct as false consciousness as prologue as mirror and as seedbed of national and literary identities In one encyclopedic novel after another Pynchon has reconceptualized historical periods that he sees as culturally definitive Examining Pynchon's entire body of work Cowart offers an engaging metahistorical reading of V an exhaustive analysis of the influence of German culture in Pynchon's early work with particular emphasis on Gravity's Rainbow and a critical spectroscopy of those dark stars Mason Dixon and Against the Day He defends the California fictions The Crying of Lot 49 Vineland and Inherent Vice as roman fleuve chronicling the decade in which the American tapestry began to unravel Cowart ends his study by considering Pynchon's place in literary history Cowart argues that Pynchon has always understood the facticity of historical narrative and the historicity of storytelling not to mention the relations of both story and history to myth Thomas Pynchon and the Dark Passages of History offers a deft analysis of the problems of history as engaged by our greatest living novelist and argues for the continuity of Pynchon's historical vision The Routledge Companion to Absurdist Literature Michael Y. Bennett, 2024-05-29 The Routledge Companion to Absurdist Literature is the first authoritative and definitive edited collection on absurdist literature As a field defining volume the editor and the contributors are world leaders in this ever exciting genre that includes some of the most important and influential writers of the twentieth century including Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter Edward Albee Eugene Ionesco Jean Genet and Albert Camus Ever puzzling and always refusing to be pinned down this book does not attempt to define absurdist literature but attempts to examine its major and minor players As such the field is indirectly defined by examining its constituent writers Not only investigating the so called Theatre of the Absurd this volume wades deeply into absurdist fiction and absurdist poetry expanding much of our previous sense of what constitutes absurdist literature Furthermore long overdue approximately one third of the book is devoted to marginalized writers black Latin x female LGBTQ and non Western voices Imagination, Creativity and Spirituality in

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory

Site Reading David J. Alworth, 2018-11-20 Site Reading offers a new method of literary and cultural interpretation and a new theory of narrative setting by examining five sites supermarkets dumps roads ruins and asylums that have been crucial to American literature and visual art since the mid twentieth century Against the traditional understanding of setting as a static background for narrative action and character development David Alworth argues that sites figure in novels as social agents Engaging a wide range of social and cultural theorists especially Bruno Latour and Erving Goffman Site Reading examines how the literary figuration of real material environments reorients our sense of social relations To read the sites of fiction Alworth demonstrates is to reveal literature as a profound sociological resource one that simultaneously models and theorizes collective life Each chapter identifies a particular site as a point of contact for writers and artists the supermarket for Don DeLillo and Andy Warhol the dump for William Burroughs and Mierle Laderman Ukeles the road for Jack Kerouac Joan Didion and John Chamberlain the ruin for Thomas Pynchon and Robert Smithson and the asylum for Ralph Ellison Gordon Parks and Jeff Wall and shows how this site mediates complex interactions among humans and nonhumans The result is an interdisciplinary study of American culture that brings together literature visual art and social theory to develop a new sociology of literature that emphasizes the sociology in literature

The Early Stories John Updike, 2007-12-18 Winner of the PEN Faulkner Award for Fiction A harvest and not a winnowing this volume collects 103 stories almost all of the short fiction that John Updike wrote between 1953 and 1975 How rarely it can be said of any of our great American writers that they have been equally gifted in both long and short forms reads the citation composed for John Updike upon his winning the 2006 Rea Award for the Short Story Contemplating John Updike's monumental achievement in the short story one is moved to think of Nathaniel Hawthorne Henry James Ernest Hemingway and perhaps William Faulkner writers whose reputations would be as considerable or nearly if short stories had been all that they had written From his remarkable early short story collections through his beautifully nuanced stories of family life and the bittersweet humors of middle age and beyond John Updike has created a body of work in the notoriously difficult form of the short story to set beside those of these distinguished American predecessors Congratulations and heartfelt thanks are due to John Updike for having brought such pleasure and such illumination to so many readers for so many years Age of Contradiction Howard Brick,2000 In Age of Contradiction Howard Brick provides a rich context for understanding historical events cultural tensions political figures artistic works and trends of intellectual life His lucid and comprehensive book combines the best methods of historical analysis and assessment with fascinating subject matter to create a three dimensional portrait of a complicated time In one of the only books on the 1960s to put ideas at the center of the period s history Brick carefully explores the dilemmas the promise and the legacy of American thought in that time Sex, Death, and the Education of Children Jonathan G. Silin,1995 Silin shows us how we culture ignorance in children and in each other by refusing to hear and respond to what they and we already know From the Foreword by Madeleine Grumet This book is not for the meek because it talks straight from the heart and from an educated and serious heart Argue disagree get angry but don t ignore what Jonathan Silin is saying Jonathan M Mann Harvard School of Public Health Will play an important role in the current debate about what the canon underlying early childhood education is and what it must be to equitably educate all children in the 21st century Louise Derman Sparks Pacific Oaks College Brings together a lifetime of advocacy and action for children for human rights for people with HIV AIDS for gay men and lesbians into a seamless argument for social justice fairness and respect for all people William Ayers University of Illinois at Chicago The importance of Silin s message for educators cannot be overstated David M Halperin MIT The Fictional Labyrinths of Thomas Pynchon David Seed,1988-06-18 Mathematics in Postmodern American Fiction Stuart J. Taylor,2024-04-23 This book delivers an innovative critical approach to better understand U S fiction of the information age and argues that in the last eighty years fiction has become increasingly concerned with its representations of mathematical ideas images and practices In so doing this book provides a fuller transnational account of the place of mathematics in understanding mathematically informed novels Literature and science studies have acknowledged and situated historical points of cultural crossover by emphasising mathematics within this larger intellectual context and not as an unlikely and alien adjunct to post war culture this monograph clarifies how mathematically informed postmodern fictions work in a cognate fashion to other fields undergoing structuralist revolutions This is especially evident in fiction by the key mathematically literate Postmodern authors upon whom this study focuses namely Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo and David Foster Wallace through which recent the technological revolutions facilitated by mathematics manifest in cultural discourse The Social Lives of Books Edward Frederick Finn,2011 This project explores how changing models of literary production are blurring or erasing the divisions between authors critics and readers Millions of cultural consumers are participating in previously closed literary conversations and expressing forms of mass distinction through their purchases and reviews of books These traces of popular reading choices constitute a fresh perspective on elusive audience reactions to literature and reveal evolving networks of conversation Employing network analysis methodologies and distant reading of book reviews recommendations and other digital traces of cultural distinction I develop a new model for literary culture in America today Through readings of the fiction and reception of Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison David Foster Wallace and Junot Diaz this model outlines the fundamental requirements for contemporary literary fame My introduction outlines methodological tools I developed and situates them in the critical traditions of literary reception cultural sociology and media theory before describing the digital ecologies that have emerged around literature online and their value Chapter 1 explores the nature of literary fame through a case study of Thomas Pynchon whose carefully guarded anonymity and ironic distance from capitalism are reflected in the networks his readers construct around his long challenging books In stark contrast Toni Morrison the subject of Chapter 2 has succeeded critically and commercially tirelessly seeking out readers to form literary communities around her writing most prominently through her collaboration with Oprah's Book Club Chapter 3 considers David Foster Wallace and Junot Diaz and sets out a model for contemporary literary culture a reading society that demands new forms of authorial reflexivity to mirror the collaborative iterative nature of digital literary conversations I conclude with a brief consideration of the exciting prospects and challenges for fiction in a world that reads more than ever but is growing disaffected with the material realities of literary production

Don DeLillo Stacey Olster, 2011-02-17 A collection of original stimulating interpretations of key texts by Don DeLillo designed for students and edited and written by leading scholars in the field The book offers new perspectives on two of the most important pre millennial novels by any American writer Mao II and Underworld and the first extended discussions of Falling Man DeLillo's exploration of 9/11 and its aftermath An American Studies approach to the texts brings together both established DeLillo scholars and other academics whose interdisciplinary methodologies drawn from history ethnic studies new economic criticism women's studies art history and urban studies shed new light on DeLillo's work and demonstrate its wide ranging significance in contemporary American culture The 1950s Richard Alan Schwartz, 2014-05-14 Traces the history of the United States during the 1950s through such primary sources as memoirs letters contemporary journalism and official documents

Failed Frontiersmen James J. Donahue, 2015-02-04 In Failed Frontiersmen James Donahue writes that one of the founding and most persistent mythologies of the United States is that of the American frontier Looking at a selection of twentieth century American male fiction writers E L Doctorow John Barth Thomas Pynchon Ishmael Reed Gerald Vizenor and Cormac McCarthy he shows how they reevaluated the historical romance of frontier mythology in response to the social and political movements of the 1960s particularly regarding the Vietnam War civil rights and the treatment of Native Americans Although these writers focus on different moments in American history and different geographic locations the author reveals their commonly held belief that the frontier mythology failed to deliver on its promises of cultural stability and political advancement especially in the face of the multicultural crucible of the 1960s Cultural Frames Framing Culture American Literatures Initiative Mystery, Violence, and Popular Culture John G. Cawelti, 2004 For two years Philip Gambone traveled the length and breadth of the United States talking candidly with LGBTQ people about their lives. In addition to interviews from David Sedaris, George Takei, Barney Frank, and Tammy Baldwin, Travels in a Gay Nation brings us lesser-known voices: a retired Naval officer, a transgender scholar, and drag king; a Princeton philosopher, two opera sopranos who happen to be lovers, an indie rock musician, the founder of a gay frat house, and a pair of Vermont garden designers. In this age when contemporary gay America is still coming under attack, Gambone captures the humanity of each individual. For some, their identity as a sexual minority is crucial to their life's work; for others, it has been less so, perhaps even irrelevant. But whether splashy or quiet, center stage or behind the scenes, Gambone's subjects have managed, despite facing ignorance, fear, hatred, intolerance, injustice, violence, ridicule, or just plain indifference, to construct passionate, inspiring lives.
