stereotypes about race and gender in interracial relationships In Don t Bring Home a White Boy writer Karyn Langhorne Folan debunks the myths and common preconceptions about interracial relationships Is a black woman who dates white men a traitor to her race And is America s history of black oppression a factor Drawing on real life testimonials she boldly tackles this difficult subject with warmth humor and understanding as she explores stereotypes of black female sexuality and white male perspectives on black female beauty Folan goes beyond statistics and offers firsthand insights on her own interracial relationship and attempts to tap into a woman s desire to have all that they deserve instead of restricting themselves simply because they want a good black man Frank authoritative and universally relevant her message to women is to look beyond

The Mentor-world Traveler, 1929 Wounds of Returning Jessica Adams, 2012-09-01 From Storyville brothels and narratives of turn of the century New Orleans to plantation tours Bette Davis films Elvis memorials Willa Cather's fiction and the annual prison rodeo held at the Louisiana State Penitentiary at Angola Jessica Adams considers spatial and ideological evolutions of southern plantations after slavery In Wounds of Returning Adams shows that the slave past returns to inhabit plantation landscapes that have been radically transformed by tourism consumer culture and modern modes of punishment even those landscapes from which slavery has supposedly been banished completely Adams explores how the commodification of black bodies during slavery did not disappear with abolition rather the same principle was transformed into modern consumer capitalism As Adams demonstrates however counternarratives and unexpected cultural hybrids erupt out of attempts to re create the plantation as an uncomplicated scene of racial relationships or a signifier of national unity Peeling back the layers of plantation landscapes Adams reveals connections between seemingly disparate features of modern culture suggesting that they remain haunted by the force of the unnatural equation of people as property
