Studies in Byzantine, Islamic and Near Eastern Silk Weaving Anna Muthesius, 2006-12-31 This volume complements Anna Muthesius two earlier ground breaking volumes in the field of silk as material culture Studies in Byzantine and Islamic Silk Weaving and Studies in Silk in Byzantium The publication highlights the fact that similar patterns of selection were at work in the acquisition of silks by secular and ecclesiastical bodies These patterns of selection were governed not only by fashions of the time but by access to international trade routes leading to the Great Silk Road linking the Near East to the Mediterranean The surviving silks prove that Mediterranean Near Eastern silk trade flourished continuously and for centuries prior to the thirteenth century contrary to what has previously widely been assumed It also highlights the crucial role of the Caucasian silk routes in accessing the Great Silk Road in the early period and the contribution of Georgian and Armenian silk weaving after the thirteenth century Above all the book demonstrates how important it is to assess the impact of Near Eastern silk manufacture and distribution in relation to Byzantine and Islamic Mediterranean silk production and trade Revisiting the Medieval North of England Anita Auer, Denis Renevey, Camille Marshall, Tino Oudesluijs, 2019-02-15 1 Interdisciplinary nature of the volume 2 Reflection of recent work carried on the North of England in various projects 3 Sheds new light on the North of England underexplored thus far and asks new questions sets out new lines of inquiry for future research What is an Image in Medieval and Early Modern England? Antoinina Bevan Zlatar, Olga Timofeeva, 2017-12-04 The premise that Western culture has undergone a pictorial turn W J T Mitchell has prompted renewed interest in theorizing the visual image In recent decades researchers in the humanities and social sciences have documented the function and status of the image relative to other media and have traced the history of its power and the attempts to disempower it What is an Image in Medieval and Early Modern England engages in this debate in two interrelated ways by focusing on the visual image during a period that witnessed the Reformation and the invention of the printing press and by exploring its status in relation to an array of texts including Arthurian romance saints lives stage plays printed sermons biblical epic pamphlets and psalms This interdisciplinary volume includes contributions by leading authorities as well as younger scholars from the fields of English literature art history and Reformation history As with all previous collections of essays produced under the auspices of the Swiss Association of Medieval and Early Modern English Studies it seeks to foster dialogue between the two periods The Senses in Late Medieval England C. M. Woolgar, Christopher Michael Woolgar, 2006-01-01 Oxbow says This fascinating study of how people understood and used their senses in the late medieval period draws on evidence from a range of literary texts documents and records as well as material culture and architectural sources Perceptions of Medieval Manuscripts Elaine Treharne, 2021-10-21 Perceptions of Medieval Manuscripts takes as its starting point an understanding that a medieval book is a whole object at every point of its long history As such medieval books can be studied most profitably in a holistic manner as objects in the world This means readers might profitably account for all aspects of the manuscript in their observations from the main texts that dominate the codex to the marginal notes glosses names and interventions made through time This holistic approach allows us to tell the story of the book s life from the moment of its production to its use collection breaking up and digitization all aspects of what can be termed dynamic architextuality The ten chapters include detailed readings of texts that explain the processes of manuscript manufacture and writing taking in invisible components of the book that show the joy and delight clearly felt by producers and consumers Chapters investigate the filling of manuscripts blank spaces presenting some texts never examined before and assessing how books were conceived and understood to function Manuscripts heft and solidness can be seen too in the depictions of miniature books in medieval illustrations Early manuscripts thus become archives and witnesses to individual and collective memories best read as relics of existence as Maurice Merleau Ponty describes things As such it is urgent that practices fragmenting the manuscript through book breaking or digital display are understood in the context of the book s wholeness Readers of this study will find chapters on multiple aspects of medieval bookness in the distant past the present and in the assurance of the future continuity of this most fascinating of cultural artefacts The Cambridge Companion to Bede Scott DeGregorio, 2010-05-06 A key introductory guide for students to Bede s cultural world his writings and his reputation in later times Writing the North of England in the Middle Ages Joseph Taylor, 2022-12-22 Writing the North of England in the Middle Ages offers a literary history of the North South divide examining the complexities of the relationship imaginative material and political between North and South in a wide range of texts Through sustained analysis of the North South divide as it emerges in the literature of medieval England this study illustrates the convoluted dynamic of desire and derision of the North by the rest of country Joseph Taylor dissects England's problematic sense of nationhood as one which must be negotiated and renegotiated from within rather than beyond national borders Providing fresh readings of texts such as Chaucer's Canterbury Tales the fifteenth century Robin Hood ballads and the Towneley plays this book argues for the North's vital contribution to processes of imagining nation in the Middle Ages and shows that that regionalism is both contained within and constitutive of its apparent opposite nationalism

Hagiography and the History of Latin Christendom, 500-1500, 2019-12-02 Hagiography and the History of Latin Christendom 500 1500 shows the historical value of texts celebrating saints both the most abundant medieval source material and among the most difficult to use Hagiographical sources present many challenges they are usually anonymous often hard to date full of topoi and unstable Moreover they are generally not what we would consider factually accurate The volume's twenty one contributions draw on a range of disciplines and employ a variety of innovative methods to address these challenges and reach new discoveries about the medieval world that extend well beyond the study of sanctity They show the rich potential of hagiography to enhance our knowledge of that world and some of the ways to unlock it Contributors are Ellen Arnold Helen Birkett Edina Bozoky Emma Campbell Adrian Cornell du Houx David Defries Albrecht Diem Cynthia Hahn Samantha Kahn Herrick J K Kitchen Jamie Kreiner Klaus Kr nert Mathew Kuefler Katherine J Lewis Giovanni Paolo Maggioni Charles M riaux Paul Oldfield Sara Ritchey Catherine Saucier Laura Ackerman Smoller and Ineke van t Spijker See inside the book

Investigations in Medieval Stained Glass, 2019-06-07 With many excellent books on medieval stained glass available the reader of this anthology may well ask what is the contribution of this collection In this book we have chosen to step away from national chronological and regional models Instead we started with scholars doing interesting work in stained glass and called upon colleagues to contribute studies that represent the diversity of approaches to the medium as well as up to date bibliographies for work in the field Contributors are Wojciech Balus Karine Boulanger Sarah Brown Elizabeth Carson Pastan Madeline H Caviness Michael W Cothren Francesca Dell Acqua Uwe Gast Fran oise Gatouillat Anne Granboulan Anne F Harris Christine Hediger Michel H rold Timothy B Husband Alyce A Jordan Herbert L Kessler David King Brigitte Kurmann Schwarz Claudine Lautier Ashley J Laverock Meredith P Lillich Isabelle Pallot Frossard Hartmut Scholz Mary B Shepard Ellen M Shortell Nancy M Thompson
