Vincent of Beauvais McCarthy,2022-07-11     Renaissance Humanism in Support of the Gospel in Luther's Early Correspondence Timothy P. Dost,2017-07-05 Drawing on the early correspondence of Martin Luther Timothy Dost presents a reassessment of the degree to which humanism influenced the thinking of this key reformation figure Studying letters written by Luther between 1507 and 1522 he explores the various ways Luther used humanism and humanist techniques in his writings and the effect of these influences on his developing religious beliefs The letters used in this study many of which have never before been translated into English focus on Luther s thoughts attitudes and application of humanism uncovering the extent to which he used humanist devices to develop his understanding of the gospel Although there have been other studies of Luther and humanism few have been grounded in such a close philological examination of Luther s writings Combining a sound knowledge of recent historiography with a detailed familiarity with Luther s correspondence Dost provides a sophisticated contribution to the field of reformation studies     Religious Drama and the Humanist Tradition: Christian Theater in Germany and in the Netherlands 1500-1680 J.A. Parente Jr.,2022-08-22

Humanism and Christian Letters in Early Modern Iberia (1480-1630) Alejandro Coroleu,2010-05-11 Even though humanism derived its literary moral and educational predilections from ancient Greek and Roman models it was never an inherently secular movement and it soon turned to religious questions Humanists were of course brought up with Christian beliefs regarded the Bible as a fundamental text and many of them were members of the clergy either regular or secular While their importance as religious sources was undiminished biblical and patristic texts came also to be read for their literary value Renaissance authors who aspired to be poetae christianissimi naturally looked to the Latin Fathers who reconciled classical and Christian views of life and presented them in an elegant manner The essays offered in this volume examine the influence of Christian Latin literature whether biblical patristic scholastic or humanistic upon the Latin and vernacular letters of the Iberian Peninsula in the period 1480 to 1630 The contributions have been organized into three thematically coherent groups dealing with transmission adaptation and visual representation Contrary to most studies on the Iberian literature of the period in which practically no essays are devoted to texts other than in Spanish this volume successfully accommodates authors writing in Portuguese and Catalan Likewise a significant part of the pieces presented here is concerned with literary texts written in Latin Moreover it shows how the interests and preoccupations of the better known authors of the Iberian Renaissance were also shared by contemporary figures whose choice of language may have resulted in their exclusion from the canon     Humanism and Secularization Riccardo Fubini,2003-01-22 Table of contents
