Dukinfield, 2018-10-10 Excerpt from A Letter to the Inhabitants of the Parish of St Martin in the Fields I must now leave a subject upon which I should be glad to dwell at much greater length and pass on to other questions which seem to me to be of very great importance to the parishioners of all ranks and fortunes It would ill become me to apologize for addressing a few pages to you on the subject of our parochial charities If apology is due on any ground it is because I have not pressed these matters more frequently and importunately than I have hitherto ventured to do A which prevents a clergyman from soliciting the bounty of his parishioners whenever it is needed in behalf of the poor of his flock but it is so difficult to accomplish great and extensive works of charity even in a wealthy metropolitan parish that I have rarely found courage to ask for what may be called an extra subscription Not to refer to annual contributions or collections after sermons I have only three times in thirteen years solicited a general subscription Twice an unusual effort was necessary in behalf of our schools About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
