

LAW REFORM

Bankruptcy Legislation Amendment Bill 2009

The objects of this Bill are:

- (a) to provide a more streamlined process for fixing trustee remuneration and a more transparent process for reviewing that remuneration;
- (b) to strengthen the penalties for some offences and ensure these are in line with the penalties for other similar offences;
- (c) to remove the outdated concept of Bankruptcy Districts in order to provide more flexibility in personal insolvency administration;
- (d) to increase the minimum debt to $10,000 for a creditor's petition to reflect changes in the economic environment;
- (e) to increase the stay period that follows a declaration of intent to file a debtor's petition to allow debtors to better assess their options; and
- (f) to increase the debt, income and asset tests thresholds for debt agreements to ensure the thresholds keep pace with increasing wages and the increasing availability of credit.
