Karkov,Robert T. Farrell,Michael Ryan,1997-10-30 A generously illustrated collection The Insular Tradition explores the various ways in which tradition becomes part of our definition of insular culture and cultural history The essays are the outcome of a conference held within the Medieval Academy of America meeting at Kalamazoo in 1991 Scholars from America Scandinavia Britain and Ireland came together to discuss the latest research on the remarkable Christian art which flourished among the Celtic and Anglo Saxon peoples in the Early Medieval Period New discoveries and a renewed research interest are shedding light on the splendid manuscript illuminations sculpture and metalwork of the time Historical sources are reanalyzed and together with modern approaches to interpretation provide fascinating new insights into the social economic and spiritual background of the creative artists This book presents a number of challenging reinterpretations of landmark achievements such as the Book of Kells the Irish High Crosses and the enigmatic symbolic and decorative systems of the Pictish people of Scotland The contributors discuss the processes of creativity the way in which influences are transmitted the cross fertilization of the arts in different media and the role of trade and exchange and of the patron Extensive illustrations some of them difficult to
