Archives, Objects, Places and Landscapes Manyanga, Munyaradzi,Chirikure, Shadreck,2017-04-11 Dissatisfaction has matured in Africa and elsewhere around the fact that often the dominant frameworks for interpreting the continent's past are not rooted on the continent's value system and philosophy This creates knowledge that does not make sense especially to local communities The big question therefore is can Africans develop theories that can contribute towards the interpretation of the African past using their own experiences Framed within a concept revision substrate the collection of papers in this thought provoking volume argues for concept revision as a step towards decolonizing knowledge in the post colony The various papers powerfully expose that cleansed knowledge is not only locally relevant it is also locally accessible and globally understandable African Folklore Philip M. Bagwasi,Patrick James Ebewo,2020-11-09 English Language and Literature Cross Cultural Currents is a collection of essays that interrogate the precarious positions of English and African languages in an era in which English is increasingly becoming the dominant language in Africa while at the same time there is a growing resistance against it Though many Africans take pride in their own cultural heritage that is expressed by their African languages they require the economic and social benefits of English The book presents a language dilemma in which both African languages and English enhance inhibit and influence each other The data used by the authors spans a broad spectrum of sources including fiction courts parliamentary Hansards House of Chiefs classrooms internet roads and bus ranks Thus it is reflective of the most and least educated the most and least influential Africans The presentations provide broad insights about African symbols metaphors imagery and folklores representing undocumented literature that challenge scientific imperialism and deficit theories The diversity and freshness of the ideas in the book stem from the unique blend of the background of the contributors English language and literature teachers teachers of African languages educationalists sociologists historians and politicians Thus the book is a valuable asset to scholars in linguistics anthropology and language policy makers The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam, Ruth Rowe, 2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written Highly recommended Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures The entries are authoritative and up to date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering Bernth Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures The Bible, Centres and Margins Johanna Stiebert, Musa W. Dube, 2018-08-23 There has rarely been an effort to address the missing dialogue between British and African scholars including in regard to the role of British missionaries during the introduction of the Bible and Christianity to many parts of Africa To break this silence Musa W Dube and Johanna Stiebert collect expressions from both emerging and established biblical scholars in the United Kingdom and predominantly southern African states Divided into three sets of papers these contributions range from the injustices of colonialism to postcolonial critical readings of texts suppression and appropriation each section complete with a responding essay Questioning how well UK students understand African centred and generated approaches of biblical criticism whether African scholars consider UK centric criticism valid and how accurately the western canon represents current UK based scholarship these essays illustrate the trends and challenges faced in biblical studies in the two centres of study and discusses how these questions are better answered with dialogue rather than in isolation The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac, 2006-06-30 THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by Weaver Press in Harare
