

Carrier Bag

I have a new job which is to gather items
and collect them in this sack called life.
But there are holes in the sack and you are one. Like a crack in a meadow – a place where grasses aren't.
Or wild daisies. Or spring willows whose cool furred buds are like strands of sealskin pearls. I touch what isn't you.
I put everything in the sack.
Corpses, thunder, snakes copulating
in a ball. I put everything in.
And some things leave through the holes
and some things are too big to leave.

The Cave and the Spring Alec Derwent Hope,1965 ~The cave and the spring Alec Derwent Hope,1970 A. D. Hope and the Ambivalence of Modernity A. D. Cousins,Dani Napton,2024-10-03 How A D Hope interpreted and reacted to modernity and modernism has been energetically discussed for some time What aspects of modernity did he find useful or prize What precisely did he dislike and why How did he make use even sometimes especially of what he disliked This book offers fresh answers to such questions from some of Australia s best known scholars It is a volume that will be of interest to undergraduates and professional academics alike At Home in Time Patrick Deane,1994-09-13 The presence of these values Deane contends is not a curiosity but part of a vital and discernible tradition of modern neo Augustanism that has been previously overlooked By tracing these writers common interest in Horace John Dryden and Samuel Johnson he uncovers important links between seemingly diverse modern poets Deane challenges the whole interpretation of literary modernism which has traditionally linked the modern poets to the Romantics and seen both as anti Augustan Deane concludes that these modern poets share a ready and pragmatic acceptance of linear time within which all acts of artistic and social creativity must take place a crucial factor in both the form and substance of their writings That art language and society are inseparable under such conditions was a bracing thought for the young Auden but a potentially disturbing one for more recent poets The Cambridge Companion to Australian Poetry Ann Vickery,2024-06-13 This volume investigates Australian poetry s centrality to debates around colonialism nationalism diversity embodiment local global relations and the environment The Cure of Poetry in an Age of Prose Mary Kinzie,1993-07-15 The role of the poet Mary Kinzie writes is to engage the most profound subjects with the utmost in expressive clarity The role of the critic is to follow the poet word for word into the arena where the creative struggle occurs How this mutual purpose is served ideally and practically is the subject of this bracingly polemical collection of essays A distinguished poet and critic Kinzie assesses poetry s situation during the past twenty five years Ours she contends is literally a prosaic age not only in the popularity of prose genres but in the resultant compromises with truth and elegance in literature In essays on the rhapsodic fallacy confessionism and the romance of perceptual response Kinzie diagnoses some of the trends that diminish the poet s flexibility Conversely she also considers individual poets Randall Jarrell Elizabeth Bishop Howard Nemerov Seamus Heaney and John Ashbery who have found ingenious ways of averting the risks of prosaism and preserving the special character of poetry Focusing on poet Louise Bogan and novelist J M Coetzee Kinzie identifies a crucial and curative overlap between the practices of great prose writing and great poetry In conclusion she suggests a new approach for teaching writers of poetry and fiction Forcefully argued these essays will be widely read and debated among critics and poets alike Australian Poetry Paul Kane,1996-01-01 This book offers a comprehensive and original reading of Australian poetry from the colonial period to the present through the dual lenses of Romanticism and negativity Paul Kane argues that the absence of Romanticism functions as a crucial presence in the poetry of all the major Australian poets This absence or negativity is both thematic and structural and Kane s scrupulous analyses uncover important relations between Romanticism and negativity Chapters on nine individual poets explore and substantiate the theoretical claims informed by the work of contemporary critics of Romanticism and by various philosophers of negativity These chapters can serve as a series of self contained readings of Australian poets for the use of students scholars and informed general readers Australian Poetry is unique in its sustained argument and theoretical sophistication

Contemporary Australian Literature Nicholas Birns,2015-12-01 Australia has been seen as a land of both punishment and refuge Australian literature has explored these controlling alternatives and vividly rendered the landscape on which they transpire Twentieth century writers left Australia to see the world now Australia s distance no longer provides sanctuary But today the global perspective has arrived with a vengeance In Contemporary Australian Literature A World Not Yet Dead Nicholas Birns tells the story of how novelists poets and critics from Patrick White to Hannah Kent from Alexis Wright to Christos Tsiolkas responded to this condition With rancour concern and idealism modern Australian literature conveys a tragic sense of the past yet an abiding vision of the way forward Birns paints a vivid picture of a rich Australian literary voice one not lost to the churning of global markets but in fact given new life by it Contrary to the despairing of the critics Australian literary identity continues to flourish And as Birns finds it is not one thing but many In this remarkable bold and fearless book Nicholas Birns contests how literary cultures are read how they are constituted and what they stand for In examining the nature of the barriers between public and private utterance and looking outside the absurdity of the rules of genre Birns has produced a redemptive analysis that leaves hope for revivifying a world not yet dead John Kinsella
