The Character Education Handbook Anne C. Dotson, 2000-11 Forgiveness, Reconciliation, and Moral Courage

Robert L. Browning, Roy A. Reed, 2004 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable This series contributes to the growing discipline of practical theology by providing frontline scholarship on major topics in the field with an emphasis on the emerging international discussion Written by expert scholars known worldwide these volumes will be of interest to pastors students of theology and those working in the allied fields of sociology psychology cultural studies social work and medicine According to the authors of this powerfully reasoned book only a serious commitment to the Christian ideas of forgiveness and reconciliation can meet the needs of today s troubled world and the church must take the lead in this process Partly a survey of existing attitudes and partly a how to manual for developing an active public church this book highlights the importance of forgiveness and reconciliation in both congregational life and society and it traces out the intricacies of making them happen After discussing common views of human nature and exploring the concepts of forgiveness and reconciliation as found in Scripture and church tradition Robert Browning and Roy Reed put forth an innovative four pronged approach integrating recent scientific studies of forgiveness with bold theologically grounded ministry proposals

Reclaiming Education for Democracy Paul Shaker, Elizabeth E. Heilman, 2010-04-26 Reclaiming Education for Democracy subjects the prophets and doctrines of educational neoliberalism to scrutiny in order to provide a rationale and vision for public education beyond the limits of No Child Left Behind The authors combine a history of recent education policy with an in depth analysis of the origins of such policy and its impact on professional educators The public face of these policies is separated from motives rooted in politics profit and ideology The book also searches for new insights in understanding the neoliberal and managerialist assault on education by examining the psychology of advocates who demonstrate a special animus toward universal public education The manipulation of public education by No Child Left Behind is a case study in the general approach to public institutions taken by the politicians and theorists in these camps K 12 education has been subjected to deceptive descriptive analyses marginalization of its professional leadership manipulation of its goals the imposition of illegitimate quality markers a grab on its resources by corporate profiteers and a demoralization of its rank and file This book helps us think beyond this new commonsense of education Recipient 2009 AERA Division K Award for Exemplary Research in Teaching and Teacher Education Handbook of Child Psychology, Child Psychology in
