The Chartists Documents Debates S:

Chartist Revolution Rob Sewell, Chartism was the first time ever that British workers fixed their eyes on the seizure of political power in 1839 1842 and again in 1848 In this struggle they conducted a class war that at different times involved general strikes battles with the state mass demonstrations and even armed insurrection They forged weapons illegally drilled their forces and armed themselves in preparation for seizing the reins of government Such were the early revolutionary traditions of the British working class deliberately buried beneath a mountain of falsehoods and distortions This book sees Chartism as an essential part of our history from which we must draw the key lessons for today The Chartist Movement

Mark Hovell,1918 English Historical Documents, 1833-1874 David Charles Douglas,George Malcolm Young,W. D. Handcock,1996 English Historical Documents is the most comprehensive annotated collection of documents on British not in reality just English history ever compiled Conceived during the Second World War with a view to ensuring the most important historical documents remained available and accessible in perpetuity the first volume came out in 1953 and the most recent volume almost sixty years later The print series edited by David C Douglas is a magisterial survey of British history covering the years 500 to 1914 and including around 5 500 primary sources all selected by leading historians Editors It has over the years become an indispensable resource for generations of students researchers and lecturers EHD is now available in its entirety online Bringing EHD into the digital age has been a long and complex process To provide you with first rate intelligent searchability Routledge have teamed up with the Institute of Historical Research one of the research institutes that make up the School of Advanced Study University of London <http://www.history.ac.uk> to produce EHD Online The IHR s team of experts have fully indexed the documents using an exhaustive historical thesaurus developed by the Royal Historical Society for its Bibliography of British and Irish History The sources include treaties statutes declarations government and cabinet proceedings military dispatches orders acts sermons newspaper articles pamphlets personal and official letters diaries and more Each section of documents and many of the documents themselves are accompanied by editorial commentary The sources cover a wide spectrum of topics from political and constitutional issues to social economic religious as well as cultural history R sum de l diteur English Historical Documents W.D.
