The Cherokee Lottery A Sequence Of Poems:

The Cherokee Lottery William Jay Smith, 2000 A sequence of poems inspired by the forced removal of the Southern Indians written by contemporary American author William Jay Smith The Contemporary Narrative Poem Steven P. Schneider, 2012-12-15 Over the past thirty years narrative poems have made a comeback against the lyric approach to poetry that has dominated the past century Drawing on a decade of conferences and critical seminars on the topic The Contemporary Narrative Poem examines this resurgence of narrative and the cultural and literary forces motivating it Gathering ten essays from poet critics who write from a wide range of perspectives and address a wide range of works the collection transcends narrow conceptions of narrative antinarrative and metanarrative The authors ask several questions What formal strategies do recent narrative poems take What social cultural and epistemological issues are raised in such poems How do contemporary narrative poems differ from modernist narrative poems In what ways has history been incorporated into the recent narrative poetry How have poets used the lyric within narrative poems How do experimental poets redefine narrative itself through their work And what role does consciousness play in the contemporary narrative poem The answers they supply will engage every poet and student of poetry Poetry as Method Sandra L Faulkner, 2016-09-17 This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to using and creating poetry for conducting and reporting social research It includes examples of poetry interviews of poets and practical exercises that will enhance the discussion of poetry writing as a method When used as a teaching guide this book will encourage students to consider the importance of form and function in poetry for qualitative methods It also answers the question of how to teach the creation and evaluation of poetry it combats the perception that poetry is too difficult or mysterious to use as research and that only poets should be concerned with poetic craft International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes The Madness of Art Robert Phillips, 2003-03-01 Robert Phillips's conversational yet penetrating approach yields self assessments that read like new essays by the writers themselves Conducted over the course of twenty years many of these pieces were first published in the Paris Review Taken from a passage Henry James the title speaks to the madness that drives our greatest works of creativity Phillips's interviews bring out this madness in its most important sense the writers are seers and visionaries whose works inspire us beyond the limits of reason The conversations recorded in The Madness of Art attain that same level of inspiration and power Phillips questions his interviewees about their work methods daily lives influences sources of inspiration relationship to other literary figures response to critics choice of genre audience and reasons for writing Twenty-First Century Perspectives on Indigenous Studies Birgit Däwes, Karsten Fitz, Sabine N. The Poets [sic] Guide to the Birds Judith Kitchen, Ted Kooser, 2009 Poetry Ted Kooser was moving all his books from his shed to his new library and in the process he was dipping into them I ve been coming up with a list of good bird poems he e mailed Can you think of any others Well of course there were the classics by Hopkins and Frost and Bishop but what else came to mind I began to scan my own shelves Just in our own collections Ted s in Nebraska mine in upstate New York we unearthed over a thousand poems with birds as their focus or at least their central image It was clear from the sheer volume that birds have fuelled the poetic imagination turning American poets into bird watchers of sorts and so we conceived of this Poets Guide Judith Kitchen from the Introduction
