Complete Poetical Works of Robert Burns Tun present edition of Burus a Complete Poetical Works conforms with the other volumes in the Cambridge series Longfellow Whittier Browning Holmes and Lowell as regards mechanical features and general treatment but its edito rial equipment is drawn entirely from the Centenary Burns edited by Messrs W E Henley and T F Henderson By arrangement with Messrs T C E C Jack of Edinburgh the publishers of that work Messrs Houghton Mimin Co Assumed the publication of the four volumes in America and also secured the right of issuing the work in one volume in general uniformity with their Cambridge edi tions The plan of the Centenary Burns was that of a definitive edition The editors not only reprinted all of the known poems of Burns but were able to collect some poems not before included They used a careful judgment in the choice of texts and accomymied each poem with a minute record of other readings so that the edition is a variorum one Not only this they traced the origin of each poem and gave a full history of its evolution where as in many cases Burns had adapted an existing song to his own use They explained moreover in prefatory and other notes the personal historical and local references and they supplied a glos nary of terms as well as copious indexes Finally Mr Henley summed up the editorial judgment in an essay at once critical and biographical About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes
