The Eco Wars David Day,1991 The Eco Wars David Day,1989 Environmental Crime and its Victims Toine Spapens,Rob White,Marieke Kluin,2016-05-06 Environmental crime is one of the most profitable and fastest growing areas of international criminal activity These types of crime however do not always produce an immediate consequence and the harm may be diffused As such the complexity of victimization in terms of time space impact and who or what is victimized is one of the reasons why governments and the enforcement community have trouble in finding suitable and effective responses This book provides a diverse and provocative array of arguments critiques and recommendations from leading researchers and scholars in the field of green criminology The chapters are divided into three main sections the first part deals with specific characteristics of some of the major types of environmental crime and its perpetrators the second focuses explicitly on the problem of victimization in cases of environmental crime and the third addresses the question of how to tackle this problem Discussing these topics from the point of view of green criminological theory sociology law enforcement community wellbeing environmental activism and victimology this book will be of great interest to all those concerned about crime and the environment Human Ecology of Sikkim Kuldip Singh Gulia,2005 A historic view on the human ecology of sikkim the culture and structure of local ecosystems human ecosystems various richness of human ecosystems monasteries and the monastic architecture customs and their eco biological significances spirit possession shamans and Jhakis ethno botany and adaptations A complete guide to the tourist industry policy makers and scholars Technology and Terrorism Paul Wilkinson,2012-12-06 This volume will be of interest to all students of terrorism policymakers and security practitioners involved in combating terrorism from government officials law enforcement military and intelligence agencies to specialists in industrial security including the aviation and nuclear power sectors Green Backlash Andrew Rowell,1996 Exposes the political Right and industry as they fight back at environmental movements examines the threats and challenges and concludes how the environmental movement must re evaluate and change to overcome the backlash Making Another World Possible Peter Ryley,2013-07-18 Making Another World Possible identifies the British contribution to the genealogy of modern green and anti capitalist thinking by examining left libertarian ideologies in the late 19th and early 20th century Britain and highlighting their influence on present day radical thought As capitalism heralded the triumph of technology greater production and a new urban industrial society some imagined alternatives to this notion of progress based on endless economic growth The book examines the development of ideas from these dissidents who included communists class warriors free thinkers secularists and Christian communitarians All shared the same beliefs that the benefits of industrialism could only be realized through equality and that urban culture depended on a healthy agriculture and harmony with the natural world concerns that are still of great importance today This distinctive history of anarchist ideas reappraises the work of thinkers and revises the historical picture of the radical milieu in 19th and 20th century Britain It will be an essential resource to anyone researching the history of ideas and studying anarchism Technology and Terrorism Paul Wilkinson,1993 Does modern technology tilt the balance in favour of the terrorists in their constant battle to defeat the efforts of counter terrorist agencies or vice versa How can we assess the feasibility and probability of terrorists in certain circumstances resorting to nuclear chemical or biological weapons Bearing in mind that terrorists have already resorted to mass murder in the form of sabotage bombing of airliners tragically demonstrated in the 1988 bombing of Pan Am 103 over Lockerbie how effective have the aviation authorities been in using technology and other measures to combat this threat

International Whaling Commission the author argues how an image of a superwhale has been constructed and how this image has replaced meat and oil as the important whale commodity He concludes that the whaling issue provides an arena where NGOs and authorities on each side can unite swapping political legitimacy and building personal relations that can be useful on issues where relations are less harmonious Library Bulletin Great Britain.
