The Electronic Schoolhouse H. Cline, R. E. Bennett, R. C. Kershaw, B. Stecher, 2013-01-11 Published in the year 1985 The Electronic Schoolhouse is a valuable contribution to the field of Education      The Electronic Schoolhouse Hugh F. Cline, 1986 First Published in 1985 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Classroom Dynamics Ellen B. Mandinach, Hugh F. Cline, 2013-12-16 This book reports an attempt to introduce change in schools using a computer based curriculum innovation for teaching higher order thinking skills to middle and high school students One of the volume s themes is the extraordinary complexity and difficulty of facilitating such change in schools A corollary of that theme is the fact that patience must be an integral part of the strategy when promoting or studying change in schools In reporting the activities during the early years of a technological innovation and research project in which the emphasis thus far has been primarily on establishing the change this book focuses on describing the move to a technology based learning environment As such it details an ongoing process a fascinating process and one that is likely to be repeated in the near future in countless schools throughout the nation      Building an Autonomous Environment Jane Frankel, 2025-04-15 Autonomy is complex It is independent and dependent 21st century work requires an autonomous mindset to thrive Individuals and organizations wishing to thrive will create an environment to enable their autonomy for best decision making This autonomy includes characteristics of agency seeing options and taking control of decisions all requiring an environment to support them Valuing and practicing autonomy is essential to thriving in the 21st century The only competitive force in the 21st century that is not matchable by competitors is the members of the organization and their commitment to the vision and mindset of the organization Organizations need environments that support workers autonomy and commitment to the organization This book helps individuals and their organizations build environments that will ensure autonomous mindsets and decisions      School Microcomputing Bulletin ,1983      Education Computer News ,1986      Report on Education Research ,1986 The independent bi weekly newsletter on research in education and learning      Mathematics and Computer Education ,1988      THE Journal ,2005      School Library Media Quarterly ,1986      Windows to the World National Educational Computing Conference,1992      Computers Into Classrooms John Beynon, Hugh Mackay, 1993 This collection of papers plus some other material presented at the Symposium on Information Technology and Education BERA conference in 1988 aims to provide a picture of current information technology and education research issues and debates The style is non technical and accessible      Computer-Based Education in the Social Studies Lee Ehman, Allen D. Glenn, 1987 Computers have not revolutionized social studies curricula because so few teachers use them But research does indicate that computers are flexible instructional tools that can assist in the development of attitudes intellectual motivation and inquiry skills Social studies educators need to consider expanded computer use in their classrooms because computers assist in the preparation of students for effective participation in society Teachers must understand how technology affects instruction learning and classroom environments along with the types of effective instructional strategies that can be used to achieve specific goals Educators should acquire the knowledge and experience needed to use computers by reviewing research relating to computer use in teaching and to instructional strategies Information on research concerning the impact of computers on students how computers change the way teachers work computers effect on the training process and computers influence on the social studies curriculum is included Necessary teacher competencies and appropriate instructional uses are explored through an analysis of teacher utility programs databases data analysis programs and simulations A 76 item bibliography concludes the document JHP American Book Publishing Record ,1985 TEACHING WITH TECHNOLOGY: "IT'S JUST A TOOL."
