Global Realignments and the Canadian Nation in the Third Millennium Karin Ika, 2010 With aggravating global realignments the dynamics and contradictions of a world risk society are looming ahead in the unfolding Third Millennium while globalization is gaining further steam To this bears witness a potpourri of often frightening geopolitical social cultural economic demographic ecological and other changes and challenges that gives substantial cause for concern about getting lost in a trans whatever sea of turmoil uncertainty and indeterminateness The resultant current backlash or rather renewed interest in the nation as a collective identity establishing category is an effort to gain some anchorage in ever more disintegrating times and proves especially those theoreticians wrong for whom the whole concept of the nation has worn off since long In 16 resourceful essays internationally distinguished Canadian and European experts from a variety of fields take a fresh look at these developments by focussing on one of the most fascinating multicultural and multifaceted nation states in the world Canada in the Third Millennium The topics they discuss include among others Canada's difficult dissociation from Europe and the USA the reframing and reclaiming of the Canadian story the role of nations within the nation the efforts to transcend the nation pending geopolitical and geo ecological crises global issues and new wars Collectively the entries prove that Canada is a very progressive nation and opens up new perspectives for other collectives currently reassessing their national identities in a global environment Thus the book reaches well beyond the study of Canada and will be valuable to academics professionals teachers and students of various disciplines coping with the issue at stake as well as the general reader

Payback Margaret Atwood, 2008 Explores debt as a central historical component of religion literature and societal structure while examining the idea of humanity's debt to the natural world

The Unconscious Civilization John Ralston Saul, 1995-11-01 Governor General's Award Winner Tenth Anniversary Edition with a new preface Our society John Ralston Saul argues in his 1995 CBC Massey Lectures is only superficially based on the individual and democracy Increasingly it is conformist and corporatist a society in which legitimacy lies with specialist or interest groups and decisions are made through constant negotiations between these groups The paradox of our situation is that knowledge has not made us conscious Instead we have sought refuge in a world of illusion where language is cut off from reality Reconnecting language to reality clarifying what we mean by individualism and democracy making these realities central to the citizen's life identifying ideologies in order to control them these are among the first elements of equilibrium which Saul proposes in these lectures

Beyond Fate Margaret Visser, 2002 Many people today are afflicted with a sense that they cannot change things for the better They feel helpless constrained caught in a word fatalistic Beyond Fate examines why In her characteristically lively prose Margaret Visser investigates what fate means to us and where the propensity to believe in it and accept it comes from She takes an ancient metaphor where time is seen and spoken of as though it were space and examines how this way of picturing reality can be a useful tool to think with or on the other hand how it may lead people into disastrous misunderstandings By observing how fatalism expresses itself in one's daily life in everything from table manners to shopping to sport the book proposes ways to limit its influence Beyond Fate provides a timely and provocative perspective on modern life both personal and social

The Triumph of Narrative Robert Fulford, 1999-01-01 Narrative has been central to human life for millennia and the twentieth century has been preeminently the age of the story Mass culture and mass leisure have enabled us to spend far more time absorbing stories real and imaginary than any of our ancestors Whether or not this has been to our benefit is one of the questions raised by journalist and 1999 CBC Massey lecturer Robert Fulford Narrative Fulford points out is how we explain how we teach how we entertain ourselves often all at once It is the bundle in which we wrap truth hope and dread It is crucial to civilization Fulford writes engagingly and energetically about narrative history narrative in news coverage the rise of electronic narrative and narrative as it flourishes in the form of gossip the folk art version of literature revealing to us the mystery power and importance of story in all our lives

A Short History of Progress Ronald Wright, 2004-10-23 Each time history repeats itself so it's said the price goes up The twentieth century was a time of runaway growth in human population consumption and technology placing a colossal load on all natural systems especially earth air and water the very elements of life The most urgent questions of the twenty first century are where will this growth lead can it be consolidated or sustained and what kind of world is our present bequeathing to our future In his 1 bestseller A Short History of Progress Ronald Wright argues that our modern predicament is as old as civilization a 10 000 year experiment we have participated in but seldom controlled Only by understanding the patterns of triumph and disaster that humanity has repeated around the world since the Stone Age can we recognize the experiment's inherent dangers and with luck and wisdom shape its outcome

The Truth about Stories Thomas King, 2003 Winner of the 2003 Trillium Book Award Stories are wondrous things award winning author and scholar Thomas King declares in his 2003 CBC Massey Lectures And they are dangerous Beginning with a traditional Native oral story King weaves his way through literature and history religion and politics popular culture and social protest gracefully elucidating North America's relationship with its Native peoples Native culture has deep ties to storytelling and yet no other North American culture has been the subject of more erroneous stories The Indian of fact as King says bears little resemblance to the literary Indian the construct so powerfully and often destructively projected by White North America With keen perception and wit King illustrates that stories are the key to and only hope for human understanding He compels us to listen well

Nostalgia for the Absolute George Steiner, 1997 The decline of formal religious systems has left a moral and emotional emptiness in Western culture George Steiner internationally renowned thinker and scholar pursues this and examines the alternative mythologies of Marxism Freudian psychology L vi Straussian anthropology and fads of irrationality The Real World of Technology Ursula M. Franklin,1999 In this expanded edition of her bestselling 1989 CBC Massey Lectures renowned Canadian scientist and humanitarian Ursula M Franklin examines the impact of technology upon our lives and addresses the extraordinary changes in the bit sphere since The Real World of Technology was first published In four new chapters Franklin tackles contentious issues such as the dilution of privacy and intellectual property rights the impact of the current technology on government and governance the shift from consumer capitalism to investment capitalism and the influence of the Internet upon the craft of writing Race Against Time Stephen Lewis,2006 In 2000 the United Nations laid out a series of eight goals meant to guide humankind in the new century Called the Millennium Development Goals these targets are to be met by 2015 and are to lay the foundation for a prosperous future In Race Against Time Stephen Lewis advances real solutions to help societies across the globe achieve the Millennium Goals Through lucid pragmatic explanations he shows how dreams such as universal primary education a successful war against the AIDS pandemic and environmental sustainability are within the grasp of humanity For anyone interested in forging a better world in the third millennium Race Against Time is powerful testimony

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 The Rights Revolution Michael Ignatieff,2007 Since the proclamation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 human rights have become the dominant language of the public good around the globe Nowhere is this more apparent than in Canada The long standing fights for aboriginal rights the linguistic heritage of French speaking Canadians and same sex marriage have steered the country into a full blown rights revolution one that is being watched carefully around the world Are group rights jeopardizing individual rights When everyone asserts his or her rights what happens to collective responsibility Can families survive and prosper when each member has rights Is rights language empowering individuals while weakening community These essays taken from Michael Ignatieff s famous Massey Lectures addresses these questions and more arguing passionately for the Canadian approach to rights that emphasizes deliberation rather than confrontation compromise rather than violence In a new afterword the author explores Canada s political achievements and distinctive stance on rights and offers penetrating commentary on more recent world events The Educated Imagination Northrop Frye,1997-03-01 What good is the study of literature Does it help us think more clearly or feel more sensitively or live a better life than we could without it Written in the relaxed and frequently humorous style of his public lectures this remains of Northrop Frye s many books perhaps the easiest introduction to his theories of literature and literary education Latin America Carlos Fuentes,2001 A passionate argument for the geopolitical autonomy of Latin America Carlos Fuentes s 1984 CBC Massey lectures trace the region s unique historical and cultural tensions and call upon foreign powers to cease interference in a sphere of influence they rarely fully understand Fuentes sees the turbulence in Latin America ending not with political solutions but economic ones Foreshadowing the end of the Cold War the signing and expansion of NAFTA and the Mexican peso crisis of 1994 Fuentes urges further co development in a progressively interdependent world and the creation of a new global economic and financial system The new world economic order is not an exercise in philanthropy he contends but in enlightened self interest for everyone concerned Forthright and intelligently reasoned Carlos Fuentes's Latin America is a timeless book about the challenges facing emergent democracies and the opportunities for growth that exist within the countries themselves Prisons We Choose to Live

Inside Doris Lessing, 1992-08-01 In her 1985 CBC Massey Lectures Doris Lessing addresses the question of personal freedom and individual responsibility in a world increasingly prone to political rhetoric mass emotions and inherited structures of unquestioned belief The Nobel Prize winning author of more than thirty books Doris Lessing is one of our most challenging and important writers The Malaise of Modernity Charles Taylor, 1991 In Malaise of Modernity Charles Taylor focuses on the key modern concept of self fulfillment often attacked as the central support of what Christopher Lasch has called the culture of narcissism To Taylor self fulfillment although often expressed in self centered ways isn't necessarily a rejection of traditional values and social commitment it also reflects something authentic and valuable in modern culture Only by distinguishing what is good in this modern striving from what is socially and politically dangerous Taylor says can our age be made to deliver its promise The Lost Massey Lectures John Galbraith, Paul Goodman, Jane Jacobs, Eric

Kierans, Martin King Jr., 2007-10-01 The CBC Massey Lectures Canada's preeminent public lecture series are for many of us a highly anticipated annual feast of ideas However some of the finest lectures by some of the greatest minds of modern times have been lost for many years unavailable to the public in any form Important thinkers whose Massey Lectures are lamentably out of print include the likes of Martin Luther King Jr John Kenneth Galbraith Jane Jacobs Paul Goodman and Eric Kierans Each of these lecturers spoke on a subject at the heart of their intellectual and spiritual concerns King on race and prejudice Galbraith on economics and poverty Jacobs on Canadian cities and Quebec separatism Goodman on the moral ambiguity of America Kierans on globalism and the nation state and their words are not only of considerable historical significance but remain hugely relevant to the problems we face today At last a selection of these lost lectures is available to a world so hungry for and yet in such short supply of innovative ideas The Lost Massey Lectures includes an introduction by Bernie Lucht who has been the executive producer of CBC Radio's Ideas and the Massey Lectures since 1984

Democracy on Trial Jean Bethke Elshtain, 1993-11-08 Is democracy as we know it in danger More and more we confront one another as aggrieved groups rather than as free citizens Deepening cynicism the growth of corrosive individualism statism and the loss of civil society are warning signs that democracy may be incapable of satisfying the yearnings it itself unleashes yearnings for freedom fairness and equality In her 1993 CBC Massey Lectures political philosopher Jean Bethke Elshtain delves into these complex issues to evaluate democracy's chances for survival
