The Emergent Gospel Theology From The Underside Of History:

The Emergent Gospel Sergio Torres, Virginia Fabella, 1978      Global Dictionary of Theology William A.

Dyrness, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new dimensions and reveals new panoramas of theological perspective and inquiry Here is a new launching point for doing theology in today's global context

Latin American Evangelical Theology in the 1970's Daniel Salinas, 2009-08-31 The story of Latin American evangelicals doing theology is mostly unknown In the 1970s there was an important development with the formation of the Latin American Theological Fraternity FTL This group spearheaded the theological production in Latin America marking the beginning of a critical stage in the history of evangelicals in the region This book deals with the reception history in North America of the FTL and its program Interamerican theological dialogue is documented and analysed      African Theology

Today Emmanuel M. Katongole, 2017-05-09 This book brings together twelve essays on a wide and rich range of topics discussions and methodologies in African theology today Even the book's limitations provide an insight into the situation its variety also indicates the absence of comprehensive and sustained discussion flowing from the economic and institutional limitation of Africa where research in theology is often beyond the means of many theologians Then there is the difficulty of staying abreast of continually changing contexts and events in Africa itself For all of these reasons then a compelling introduction to a dynamic analysis and conversation      The Cambridge Companion to Liberation Theology Christopher Rowland, 1999-03-13 Liberation theology is widely referred to in discussions of politics and religion but not always adequately understood This Companion offers an introduction to the history and characteristics of liberation theology in its various forms in different parts of the world Authors from four continents examine the emergence and character of liberation theology in Latin America black theology Asian theology and the new situation arising from the end of the apartheid regime in South Africa The major Christian Church's attitude to liberation theology and the extent of the movement's indebtedness to Marxism are examined and a political theologian writing from another perspective of Christian theology offers an evaluation Through a sequence of eleven chapters readers are given a comprehensive description and evaluation of the different facets of this important theological and social movement There is also an Introduction relating liberation theology to the history of theology and a Select Bibliography

The Hermeneutical Spirit Amos Yong, 2017-11-06 In the contemporary biblical studies climate proposals regarding the theological interpretation of Scripture are contested particularly but not only because they privilege encourage and foster ecclesial or other forms of normative commitments as part and parcel of the hermeneutical horizon through which scriptural texts are read and understood Within this context confessional approaches have been emerging including some from within the nascent pentecostal theological tradition This volume builds on the author's previous work in theological method to suggest a pentecostal perspective on theological interpretation that is rooted in the conviction that all Christian reading of sacred Scripture is post Pentecost meaning after the Day of Pentecost outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh in anticipation of the coming reign of God In that respect such a pentecostal interpretative perspective is not parochially for those within the modern day movement bearing that name but is arguably apostolic in following after the scriptural imagination of the earliest disciples of Jesus the messiah and therefore has ecumenical and missional purchase across space and time The Hermeneutical Spirit thus provides close readings of various texts across the scriptural canon as a model for Christian theological interpretation of Scripture suitable for the twenty first century global context

Toward an African Theology of Fraternal Solidarity Ikenna Ugochukwu Okafor, 2014-09-29 In this book Ikenna Okafor tackles an interesting and timely topic and demonstrates competence and maturity in developing his insight into Igbo humanism to make liberation theology from an African perspective into a theology of solidarity and fraternity With a good narrative style Okafor critiques the Latin American liberation theological project And inspired by the hermeneutical implications of UBE NAWANNE the evangelical positioning of material poverty and pathos for the poor as defining Christian discipleship is persuasively presented The potent nwanne idiom guides his critical evaluation of the social teachings and praxis of the Catholic Church In fact it is clear that Okafor embarked on a subject matter that is of theological moment and has creative pastoral implications for the Church of Nigeria the Churches of Africa and the World Church

Theology for a Liberating Church Alfred T. Hennelly, 1989 Freedom is a fundamental Christian theological category as much a challenge to construct a new way of seeing oneself and others as it is an announcement of what Christ has already done for us in his death and resurrection Liberation theology is most simply the effort to spell out what such freedom means for Christians in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book has as its principle premise the conviction that if we are to construct a North American liberation theology we must begin listening to and understanding Latin American theology not so much as a model to be slavishly followed but as a challenge to our own cultural political and even religious assumptions

The focus thus is not so much on the theoretical meaning of Christian freedom but on its practice and more exactly its praxis that is to say the dialectic between theory and practice After focusing on the creation and development of liberating theological methods and sources and above all the revitalization and renewal of structures that will contribute to the development of a liberated and liberating church Fr Hennelly ends with an analysis of the most recent and the most important vatican document on liberation theology The Instruction of Christian Freedom and Liberation which he sees as an acknowledgement by the universal church that the theme of liberation is central to the meaning of Christian theology

Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot,2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider s role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development A Critical

Introduction to Religion in the Americas Michelle A. Gonzalez,2014-07-18 This book argues that we cannot understand religion in the Americas without understanding its marginalized communities Despite frequently voiced doubts among religious studies scholars it makes the case that theology and particularly liberation theology is still useful but it must be reframed to attend to the ways in which religion is actually experienced on the ground That is a liberation theology that assumes a need to work on behalf of the poor can seem out of touch with a population experiencing huge Pentecostal and Charismatic growth where the focus is not on inequality or social action but on individual relationships with the divine

African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Mari-Anna Pöntinen,2013-02-14 In African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Celebrating Life and Harmony in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botswana Mari Anna P ntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the Christian faith in this church These interpretations draw from the Tswana tradition and liberation in Christ The New Cambridge Companion to Biblical Interpretation Ian Boxall,Bradley C. Gregory,2022-12-22 This volume provides an up to date introduction to the diverse ways the Bible is being interpreted by scholars in the field

Native and Christian James Treat,2012-11-12 Native and Christian is an anthology of essays by indigenous writers in the United States and Canada on the problem of native Christian identity This anthology documents the emergence of a significant new collective voice on the North American religious landscape It brings together in one volume articles originally published in a variety of sources many of them obscure or out of print including religious magazines scholarly journals and native periodicals along with one previously unpublished manuscript Reenvisioning Christian Ethics Darryl W.

Stephens,2020-12-29 Christian ethics is a wide and varied field so diverse are the methods and approaches theological perspectives and starting points and scopes of inquiry and purposes dare we even call it a discipline that the field is rarely considered as a whole Christian ethics includes historical descriptive critical constructive and applied projects on countless topics Lending creative energy to this field of study are a range of partner disciplines including most prominently theology philosophy and sociology each containing multiple schools themselves To envision the entire field of Christian ethics is a difficult task to reenvision the entire field may perhaps be impossible for one person Thus this publication includes original research by multiple scholars each offering a distinct perspective from their primary partner discipline Chapters include Roman Catholic and Protestant voices from Europe Asia and North America In aggregate these writings contribute to a composite reenvisioning of Christian ethics refracting our collective vision through the prisms of diverse academic and methodological perspectives in this vast field of inquiry study and practice The World Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger, 2018-07-02 On November 16 2017 Pope Francis tweeted Poverty is not an accident It has causes that must be recognized and removed for the good of so many of our brothers and sisters With this statement and others like it the first Latin American pope was associated in the minds of many with a stream of theology that swept the Western hemisphere in the 1960s and 70s the movement known as liberation theology Born of chaotic cultural crises in Latin America and the United States liberation theology was a trans American intellectual movement that sought to speak for those parts of society marginalized by modern politics and religion by virtue of race class or sex Led by such revolutionaries as the Peruvian Catholic priest Gustavo Guti rrez the African American theologian James Cone or the feminists Mary Daly and Rosemary Radford Ruether the liberation theology movement sought to bridge the gulf between the religious values of justice and equality and political pragmatism It combined theology with strands of radical politics social theory and the history and experience of subordinated groups to challenge the ideas that underwrite the hierarchical structures of an unjust society Praised by some as a radical return to early Christian ethics and decried by others as a Marxist takeover liberation theology has a wide raging cross sectional history that has previously gone undocumented In The World Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger offers for the first time a systematic retelling of the history of liberation theology demonstrating how a group of theologians set the stage for a torrent of new religious activism that challenged the religious and political status quo

Doing Theology at the Grassroots Kalilombe, Patrick A., 2018-05-22 Patrick Kalilombe has been distinguished for more than twenty ve years as a pioneering theologian and ecclesiologist Circumstances have determined that much of his best work has been produced and published outside Malawi and through such diversity of outlets that it is very di cult for students and others to have access to his work as a whole Hence we are convinced that his collection of his essays will have a very wide appeal both in Malawi and beyond The chapters are quite varied in their origins and subjects but the reader will not take long to notice recurrent themes the author s missionary vocation the critical role of the grassroots in theological construction the integrity of Chewa traditional beliefs the combination of Catholic commitment with radical openness to all religious and cultural traditions Throughout the book is a series of photographs which lead progressively through the events of Bishop Kalilombe's 25th Jubilee celebration at Mua in 1997

Emerging Voices in Global Christian Theology William Dyrness, 2003-12-30 There are some new voices emerging in Christian theological conversation these days They do not speak with American or Western European accents but reflect their settings in Africa Asia and Latin America Since they come from many places the theological questions they ask are not ones we are used to in the West They are as likely to speak of ancestor worship or political oppression as they are of church growth or evangelism One thing is clear we cannot listen to their cries of hope or despair without being deeply moved This book gives an opportunity to listen in to important conversations going on in different parts of the world These Christian theologians do not respond to a common set of questions but are setting their own agendas of theological discussion With some general introductory comments these pieces are meant to stimulate an appetite for further exploration There seems little doubt that the major voices in theology in the next generation will share these non western accents

Ford's The Modern Theologians Rachel Muers, Ashley Cocksworth, 2024-03-18 Captures the multiple voices of Christian theology in a diverse and interconnected world through in depth studies of representative figures and overviews of key movements Providing an unparalleled overview of the subject The Modern Theologians provides an indispensable guide to the diverse approaches and perspectives within Christian theology from the early twentieth century to the present Each chapter is written by a leading scholar and explores the development and trajectory of modern theology while presenting critical accounts of a broad range of relevant topics and representative thinkers The fourth edition of The Modern Theologians is fully updated to provide readers with a clear picture of the broad spectrum and core concerns of modern Christian theology worldwide It offers new perspectives on key twentieth century figures and movements from different geographical and ecclesial contexts There are expanded sections on theological dialogue with non Christian traditions and on Christian theology's engagement with the arts and sciences A new section explores theological responses to urgent global challenges such as nationalism racism and the environmental crisis Providing the next generation of theologians with the tools needed to take theological conversations forward The Modern Theologians Explores Christian theology's engagement with multiple ways of knowing across diverse approaches and traditions Combines introductions to key modern theologians and coverage of the major movements within contemporary theology Identifies common dynamics found across theologies to enable cross contextual comparisons Positions individual theologians in geographical regions trans local movements and ecclesial contexts Features new and revised chapters written by experts in particular movements topics and individuals Providing in depth critical evaluation and extensive references to further readings and research Ford's The Modern Theologians An Introduction to Christian Theology since 1918 Fourth Edition remains an ideal textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in Theology and Religious Studies such as Introduction to Christian Theology Systematic Theology Modern Theology and Modern Theologians It is also an invaluable resource for researchers those involved in various forms of Christian ministry teachers of religious studies and general readers engaged in independent study      Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America, Set Rosemary Skinner Keller, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Marie Cantlon, 2006-04-19 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life      The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual Reconsidered Jerry G. Watts, 2004-08-26 A collection of essays looking back at the influence of The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual first published 35 years ago
