Divine

Emptiness and Historical Fullness Masao Abe, 1995 One of the most prominent Buddhist participants in the vigorous interfaith dialogue of the 20th century has been Masao Abe In this book he sets forth a provocative notion of kenosis emptying in relation to the Mahayana Buddhist notion of Sunyata emptiness while also offering a Buddhist view of the Holocaust

Masao Abe a Zen Life of Dialogue Donald W. Mitchell, 2011-12-20 Masao Abe A Zen Life of Dialogue is a compilation of essays that cover the life and work of Masao Abe perhaps one of the greatest Zen Buddhist communicators of the twentieth century Masao Abe has opened up a rich dialogue between Japan and the West He is considered the leading living Zen figure in the Kyoto School of Buddhist thought and the successor of D T Suzuki his early mentor as the foremost exponent of Zen Buddhism in the West Through stories and recollections thirty five leading intellectual figures explore Abe s encounter with the West including his work on interfaith dialogue as a basis for world peace as well as his comparative philosophical scholarship over the past thirty years This book is a retrospective and an extra ordinary step ahead in the encounter between Zen and the West

Mark Heim, 2018-12-04 Winner of the Frederick Streng Book Award for Excellence in Buddhist Christian Studies This work provides the first systematic discussion of the Bodhisattva path and its importance for constructive Christian theology Crucified Wisdom examines specific Buddhist traditions texts and practices not as phenomena whose existence requires an apologetic justification but as wells of tested wisdom that invite theological insight With the increasing participation of Christians in Buddhist practice many are seeking a deeper understanding of the way the teachings of the two traditions might interface Christ and the Bodhisattva are often compared superficially in Buddhist Christian discussion This text combines a rich exposition of the Bodhisattva path using ntideva s classic work the Bodicary vat ra and subsequent Tibetan commentators with detailed reflection on its implications for Christian faith and practice Author S Mark Heim lays out root tensions constituted by basic Buddhist teachings on the one hand and Christian teachings on the other and the ways in which the Bodhisattva or Christ embody and resolve the resulting paradoxes in their respective traditions An important contribution to the field of comparative theology in general and to the area of Buddhist Christian studies in particular Crucified Wisdom proposes that Christian theology can take direct instruction from Mah y na Buddhism in two respects deepening its understanding of our creaturely nature through no self insights and revising its vision of divine immanence in dialogue with teachings of emptiness Heim argues that Christians may affirm the importance of novelty in history the enduring significance of human persons and the Trinitarian reality of God even as they learn to value less familiar nondual dimensions of Christ s incarnation human redemption and the divine life Crucified Wisdom focuses on questions of reconciliation and atonement in Christian theology and explores the varying interpretations of the crucifixion of Jesus in Buddhist Christian discussion The Bodhisattva path is central for major contemporary Buddhist voices such as the Dalai Lama and Th ch Nh t Hanh who figure prominently as conversation partners in the text This work will be of particular value for those interested in dual belonging in connection to these traditions On Metaphoring Wu, 2022-05-20 On Metaphoring engages in a metaphor way to communicate and inter learn among cultures Bundle A describes how metaphor bundles things similar into a group called a notion a category etc How does metaphor bundle things It familiarizes strange things with things that are familiar to enrich old familiar things with new things newly made familiar Such metaphoric bundling creates a new family of knowledge In this order Bundle B characterizes metaphor as the origin of thinking fit as a highway of intercultural communication where there is no shared way of thinking for each culture is a

Buddhism, Christianity and the Question of Creation Perry Schmidt-Leukel, 2016-12-05 Is the world created by a divine creator Or is it the constant product of karmic forces The issue of creation was at the heart of the classic controversies between Buddhism and Hindu Theism In modern times it can be found at the centre of many polemical debates between Buddhism and Christianity Is this the principal barrier that separates Buddhism from Christianity and other theistic religions The contributions to Part One explore the various aspects of traditional and contemporary Buddhist objections against the idea of a divine creator as well as Christian possibilities to meet the Buddhist critique Part Two asks for the potential truth on both sides and suggests a surprising way that the barrier might be overcome This opens a new round of philosophical and theological dialogue between these two major traditions with challenging insights for both Contributors Jos I Cabezn John P Keenan Armin Kreiner Aasulv Lande John D Arcy May Eva K Neumaier Perry Schmidt Leukel Ernst Steinkellner

Zen and Comparative Studies Masao Abe, 1997-01-01 This volume concludes the two volume sequel to Masao Abe's Zen and Western Thought Like its companion Buddhism and Interfaith Dialogue this work contains many previously published essays and papers by Abe Here he clarifies the true meaning of Buddhist emptiness in comparison with the Aristotelian notion of substance and the Whiteheadian notion of process

Buddhist Christianity Ross Thompson, 2010-08-27 It is possible to be a Christian Buddhist in the context of a universal belief that sits fairly lightly on both traditions Ross Thompson takes especially seriously the aspects of each faith that seem incompatible with the other no God and no soul in Buddhism for example and the need for grace and the historical atonement on the cross in Christianity Buddhist Christianity can be no bland blend of the tamer aspects of both faiths but must result from a wrestling of the seeming incompatibles allowing each faith to shake the other to its very foundations The author traces his personal journey through which his need for both faiths became painfully apparent He explores the Buddha and Jesus through their teachings and the varied communities that flow from them investigating their different understandings of suffering and wrong self and liberation meditation and prayer cosmology and God or not He concludes with a bold commitment to both faiths

The Emptied Christ of Philippians John P. Keenan, 2015-12-15 Before the Gospels were written long before the creeds of the Church were hammered out Christ followers in Philippi sang a hymn of the Christ who although he was in the form of God emptied himself taking the form of a slave being born as are all humans But this emptied Christ never fit neatly into later theologies of the church shaped by Greek thought concerned with being and essence In Philippians Paul struggles stumbling over his own awkward words to express his hope his eschatological faith that he might gain Christ and be found in him and participate in his sufferings by being conformed to his death if in some way I may reach to what goes beyond the resurrection from the dead Might we better comprehend Paul's inchoate even mystical faith in Jesus Christ with aid from a less empirical

Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford,2013-02-15 In Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford reimagines the possibilities for how theology thinks God within a postmodern world He argues that theology is improvisation by analyzing the nature of attunement within theological thinking and how this opens certain possibilities for theology He does so by engaging a number of thinkers including Martin Heidegger Jacques Derrida David Tracy and Saint Augustine He navigates the nature of thinking God in a postmodern world by using these thinkers to offer critiques of onto theological thinking and totalizing systems while also following their embrace of the fragment and focus upon the nature of thinking as attunement The result is a unique way of approaching theological thinking in our contemporary context The Divine Quest, East and West James L. Ford,2016-01-28 Many books have discussed the development of the notion of God in Western monotheistic traditions but how have non Western cultures conceptualized what those in the West might identify as God What might be learned by comparing different visions of the Divine such as God gods Brahman Nirvana and Emptiness James L Ford engages these fascinating questions exploring notions of the Divine or Ultimate Reality within Jewish Christian Hindu and Buddhist traditions Looking at a multiplicity of divine conceptions even within traditions Ford discusses the relationship between imagination and revelation in the emergence of visions of ultimacy consequences and tendencies associated with particular notions of the Ultimate and how new visions of the Ultimate arise in relation to social cultural political and scientific developments Ford reflects on what can be learned through an awareness of the various beliefs about the Ultimate and on how such disparate visions influence the attitudes and behavior of people in different parts of the world Deep Religious Pluralism David Ray Griffin,2005-01-01 A groundbreaking scholarly work Deep Religious Pluralism is based on the conviction that the philosophy articulated by Alfred North Whitehead encourages not only religious diversity but deep religious pluralism Arising from a 2003 Center for Process Studies conference at Claremont Graduate University this book offers an alternative to the version of religious pluralism that has dominated the recent discussion especially among Christian thinkers in the West which has evoked a growing call to reject pluralism as such Renowned contributors of a diversity of faiths include Steve Odin John Shunji Yakota Sandra B Lubarsky Jeffery D Long Mustafa Ruzgar Christopher Ives Michael Lodahl Chung ying Cheng Wang Shik Jang and John B Cobb Jr Buddhism and Islam Kieko Obuse,2024-11-04 Buddhist Muslim relations are usually seen as inherently confrontational This book challenges the view of Buddhism and Islam as fundamentally irreconcilable by exploring the diverse ways representatives of the two traditions have engaged each other in Southeast Asia the global frontstage of contemporary Buddhist Muslim relations and Japan a Buddhist majority country whose Islam policy played a significant role in its surge to global power status It investigates the processes through which mutual perceptions and discourses have developed in response to shifting socio political circumstances and via the intellectual interventions of leading personalities

Evil and Evolution: A Theodicy Richard W. Kropf, 2004-08-18 First published in 1984 and recently revised and updated this book deals with the problem of evil or theodicy God's justice It contends that the process of evolution particularly as it bears on the emergence of free will rather than being a barrier to faith gives us the key to understanding its greatest obstacle the existence of so much suffering in the world It further advances the still contested claim that God is truly our fellow sufferer in our struggle to overcome evil in all of its many forms

Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology Catherine Cornille, 2019-04-29 The first systematic overview of the field of comparative theology Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers a synthesis of and a blueprint for the emerging field of comparative theology It discusses various approaches to the field the impact of religious views of other religions on the way in which comparative theology is conducted and the particularities of comparative theological hermeneutics It also provides an overview of the types of learning and of the importance of comparative theology for traditional confessional theology Though drawing mainly from examples of Christian comparative theology the book presents a methodological framework that may be applied to any religious tradition Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology begins with an elaboration on the basic distinction between confessional and meta confessional approaches to comparative theology The book also identifies and examines six possible types of comparative theological learning and addresses various questions regarding the relationship between comparative and confessional theology Provides a unique and objective look at the field of comparative theology for scholars of religion and theologians who want to understand or situate their work within the broader field Contains methodological questions and approaches that apply to comparative theologians from any religious tradition Recognizes and affirms the diversity within the field while advancing unique perspectives that might be the object of continued discussions among theologians Meaning and Method in Comparative Theology offers an important basis for scholars to position their own work within the broader field of comparative theology and is an essential resource for anyone interested in theology conducted in dialogue with other religious traditions 2021 PROSE Finalist in the Theology Religious Studies category
