Mistress of Life and Death Susan J. Eischeid, 2023-12-26 A gripping unflinching biography of SS Overseer Maria Mandl, one of the most notorious and contradictory figures at the heart of the Nazi regime and her transformation from harmless small town girl to hardened killer. With new details and previously unpublished photographs, this gripping unflinching examination charts her transformation from engaging country girl to The Beast of Auschwitz. By the time of her execution at thirty-six, Maria Mandl had achieved the highest rank possible for a woman in the Third Reich. As Head Overseer of the women's camp at Auschwitz-Birkenau, she was personally responsible for the murders of thousands and for the torture and suffering of countless more. In this riveting biography, Susan J. Eischeid explores how Maria Mandl, regarded locally as a nice girl from a good family, came to embody the very worst of humanity. Born in 1912 in the scenic Austrian village of Mnzkirchen, Maria enjoyed a happy childhood with loving parents who later watched in anguish as their grown daughter rose through the Nazi system. Mandl's life mirrors the period in which she lived: turbulent, violent, and suffused with paradoxes. At Auschwitz-Birkenau, she founded the notable women's orchestra and adopted several children from the transports, only to lead them to the gas chambers when her interest waned. After the war, Maria was arrested for crimes against humanity. Following a public trial attended by the international press, she was hanged in 1948. For two decades, Eischeid has excavated the details of Mandl's life story, drawing on archival testimonies, speaking to dozens of witnesses, and spending time with Mandl's community of friends and neighbors who shared their memories as well as those handed down in their families. The result is a chilling and complex exploration of how easily an ordinary citizen chose the path of evil in a climate of hate and fear. The Last Mistress Andrew Muir, 2011-03-02 The Last Mistress is the story of Richard Brown, who leaves an English boarding school at the end of World War II to find his way in the world. Believing that he might have a vocation to take Holy Orders, he decided to travel to Jerusalem and then onto Rome. A brief stay in Paris opens a new world to him. On arrival in Palestine, he gets caught up in the war between Jews and Arabs and is conscripted into the Palestine Police. Posted on the border between Palestine and Lebanon, he gets the opportunity to visit Beirut and enjoy its pleasures before being demobilized and sent back to London. His journey through life does not stop there. Graduating from Imperial College London University, he enters the business world and as a high-flying investment banker, he decides that the sky's the limit. He travels around the world, continuing with his lighthearted erotic romp through life, before a tragic event brings him back to earth and allows him to find his true vocation Though by no means an autobiography much of the background especially the events in Palestine are factual and well authenticated However as with his previous novels the author draws on his personal experiences and titillates us with descriptions of gastronomic delights and seductive and sensual pleasures of love
