The End Of The Primitive:

The End of a Primitive Chester Himes, 2024-10-08 Two lives spiral into a fatal pas de deux during a weekend of sex alcohol and violence from the acclaimed author of the Harlem Detectives series Jesse Robinson and Kriss Cummings once shared a passionate weekend in Chicago but it's been years since they've seen each other Jesse a black writer refuses to pen the inspirational novel his agent wants and sits in his Harlem tenement as his career plummets accordingly Kriss a white divorcee has found moderate success at her office job but is disillusioned with life Often sleeping with black men she's pilloried for solving the Negro Problem in bed Each of them lonely and embittered by the racial tensions of McCarthy era America they reunite for a whiskey soaked weekend in 1952 spiraling into a violent malicious pas de deux that is fated to end in destruction

The Foundations of Character Alexander Faulkner Shand,1914 A scientific treatment should not diminish but increase the general interest taken in character To bring together the various aspects of the subject which in literature are treated in isolation from one another to lead up to a general conception of it to study the methods by which the knowledge of it may be increased in accuracy and extent these are to make approaches to a scientific treatment of character While I have had chiefly to confine myself to a study of the tendencies of the emotions and sentiments this has been throughout my aim This book then is a study of method Yet I do not claim that this method is essentially new It is in the main the hypothetical method of the sciences it has had to be adapted to the treatment of character that is all A complete science of mind would include a science of character The best approach to such a science is through the study of the primary emotions and their connected instincts This study is to be directed to an analysis of tendencies PsycINFO Database Record c 2005 APA all rights reserved
