The Triumph of Faith in Habakkuk Donald E. Gowan,2009-09-01 Donald E Gowan offers new insights into what may be the Old Testament s earliest treatment of the problem of suffering the book of Habakkuk That small obscure part of the Old Testament tucked away somewhere in the middle of the minor prophets as Gowan put it Habakkuk has been a middle child of too many Bible students non attention Yet Gowan makes no claim that this book should be more central than it has been Instead he shows his own personal pastoral and scholarly involvement with this powerful tract After an introductory chapter the author examines each of Habakkuk s three sections Gowan offers his own translation of the text applying a critical approach and providing a decisive commentary Gowan compares the first section s dialogue between the prophet and God Habakkuk 1 1 2 4 with other Old Testament dialogues about God s justice He also discusses God s response But the just shall live by faith as a meaningful answer to Habakkuk s questions While the woe oracles of the second section Habakkuk 2 5 20 have not seemed very important in the past Gowan shows how they form a mock funeral dirge sung in advance of a great tyrant s death He then applies this insight to the problems of tyranny and liberty today The psalm Habakkuk 3 which concludes the book is discussed in terms of Israelite traditions theophany faith and history The central focus is placed on Habakkuk s striking personal statement concerning the ability of the man of faith to live through suffering joyfully Recognizing the relationship of our suffering to that of Christ Gowan concludes The Triumph of Faith in Habakkuk by drawing together relevant themes from Habakkuk s time and Jesus s experience
