You may be thinking, "What is wrong with me?" or wondering why you can't seem to snap out of it. You may have asked God, "Why her and not me?" or you may be so angry at God that you have stopped talking to Him altogether. If any of this sounds remotely familiar, this book was written for you. For This Child I Prayed offers hope to women who are dealing with fertility issues by helping them identify common spiritual strongholds and outlining specific steps toward spiritual healing and restoration.

Brown, 2022-04-01 Moments after giving birth to their first child, Lisa and Steve Brown are devastated to learn that even the doctors didn't know his prognosis, much less how to explain it to them. Their newborn son, Logan, looked profoundly different. What challenges would this young family face in the future? Twelve days later, they handed their newborn son over to surgeons for them to build and remodel his skull. Before the initial shock and grief wore off, they learned this would become the first of many surgeries and challenges they would endure. Lisa D. Brown tells her family's riveting story that will take you through their journey of real-life hardships, diagnoses, new family additions, bullying, acceptance, humor, and perseverance. This inspiring story offers hope and encouragement to others to face fear and find joy in life's journey.

Journey of Hope and Despair, 2010-03-18 These two volumes chronicle the life of a liberal Jew who came of age in Germany during the relatively enlightened period of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Rudolf Moos obtained his education in Ulm and after working in his family's leather business, went in hope to seek his fortune in Berlin. He founded Salamander, the largest shoe business in Germany, which is still active today. He was a German patriot who served his country in World War I and received a War Merit Cross (Kriegsverdienstkreuz) for his endeavors. Rudolf Moos lived in Germany in growing despair through the political upheaval and hyperinflation in the aftermath of World War I. He was related to and enjoyed a friendship with Albert Einstein when they both lived in Berlin in the 1920s and early 1930s. Rudolf Moos then experienced the rise of the Nazis and the ever-growing restrictions placed on him and members of his extended family. Anti-Jewish sentiment in Germany rose sharply during 1933, which effectively ended his active life in business and community affairs and gave him unsought free time to set out the story of his life. He and his wife were eventually permitted to leave Germany and immigrate to England, where he continued to work on his memoirs during the turmoil of World War II. Volume I of Rudolf Moos' memoirs, Rise and Fall, describes the poisoned atmosphere existing for the Jews in the Germany of the late 1930s, sets out his experiences of humiliation and arrest, the breath of freedom on leaving his Homeland, and his arrival in England as a penniless alien. Chapter 1 focuses on Rudolf Moos' origins and his father's family and leather manufacturing.

company which initiated trade with East India in the 1880s It describes the background of Rudolf Moos mother who was a member of the Einstein family and provides details about the lives of Rafael and Rupert Einstein her father and grandfather
