The Duke Ellington Reader Duke Ellington,1993 A collection of writings by and about Duke Ellington and his place in jazz history Jungle of Steel and Stone George C. Chesbro,2017-11-14 From the author of the Mongo Mysteries Former CIA operative Veil Kendry uses his paranormal powers to track down a stolen African artifact When Veil Kendry dreams he possesses a clarity normal people never experience along with the power of volition which allows him to enter the minds of others Veil's strange gift was invaluable as an operative for the CIA but now he's left that life behind and instead channels his unusual ability into art When needed though he still applies his supernatural and clandestine skills to helping those in trouble So when Veil crosses paths with a thief who stole a Kung tribe religious idol from the same midtown art gallery that exhibits his dream paintings he's compelled to get involved despite threats from a corrupt cop named Carl Nagle Using his dream powers Veil attempts to enter the mind of the thief in order to apprehend him But there are others on the hunt desperate to possess the artifact and soon Veil will find himself fighting just to stay alive Jungle of Steel and Stone is the 2nd book in the Veil Kendry Suspense Novels but you may enjoy reading the series in any order The British Trauma Film Adam Plummer,2023-04-20 While the historical influence of psychoanalysis on Hollywood cinema has received considerable attention the same cannot be said for its influence on British cinema This book examines the central position that psychoanalysis occupies in British cinema in the years immediately following the Second World War Plummer uses a critical theory framework to understand the role that psychoanalysis plays in British culture at this time as an historical discourse and in British cinema as a narrative a cultural and an ideological discourse He defines these as arising within various areas of contemporary psychoanalytic thinking related to traumatic wartime experience sexual difference and the interplay between subjectivity and objectivity He analyzes six British films of the period The Halfway House Dead of Night The Seventh Veil Madonna of the Seven Moons They Made Me a Fugitive and Mine Own Executioner and demonstrates how psychoanalysis operates within them as a narrative and formal structuring mechanism He argues that this engagement enables these films to begin to address the emotional fallout of the war by creating safe representational spaces where contemporary audiences could engage with their own traumatic experiences While The British Trauma Film defines psychoanalysis as providing a language for British cinema at this time to confront the effects of wartime trauma it finds that it also operates within a normalizing ideological system designed to reproduce dominant pre war relations of political social and sexual power However in this group of films this system is often countered by subversive discursive forces that seem to be immanent to the films themselves ... Mexican and Central American Antiquities, Calendar Systems, and History
