The Nonconformists Brian K. Goodman,2023-06-20 The Cold War was an era of surprising connections between American and Czech literary cultures Major writers met behind the Iron Curtain while others smuggled translated and adapted works from the other side Brian K Goodman explores the artistic and political consequences arguing that the movement of literature inspired new forms of dissent Trends in Chinese Education Chen Hongjie,W. James Jacob,2016-10-04 This book considers a wide range of key developments and key areas of debate in China s education system Marketization quality assurance and issues of inequality and gender are all discussed as are expansion in the primary secondary and tertiary sectors the impact of globalization and the influence of education on China s economic growth The book which comprises contributions from many leading authorities will be of great interest both to comparative education specialists and also to all those interested in China s rise and development Informers Up Close Mark A. Drumbl,Barbora Holá,2024-04-17 Informers are generally reviled After all snitches get stitches Informers who report to repressive regimes are particularly disdained While informers may themselves be victims enlisted by the state their actions cause other individuals to suffer significant harm Informers then are central to the proliferation of endemic human rights abuses Yet little is known about exactly why ordinary people end up informing on at times betraying other people to state authorities Through a case study of Communist Czechoslovakia 1945 1989 that draws from secret police archives oral histories and a broad gamut of secondary sources this book unearths what fuels informers to speak to the secret police in repressive times and considers how transitional justice should approach informers once repression ends This book unravels the complex drivers behind informing and the dynamics of societal reactions to informing It explores the agency of both informers and secret police officers By presenting informers up close and the relationships between informers and secret police officers in high resolution this book centres the role of emotions in informer motivations and underscores the value of dignity and reconciliation in transitional reconstruction This book also leverages research from informing in repressive states to better understand informing in so called liberal democratic states which after all also rely on informers to maintain law and preserve order To learn more read the introduction and conclusion from the book s symposium <https://opiniojuris.org/2024/08/19/introduction-to-the-sympo> <https://opiniojuris.org/2024/08/23/symposium-on-informers-up> <https://justiceinconflict.org/2024/10/07/disguise-blur-purr-and-nakedness-mark-drumbl-and-barbora-hola-on-informers-up-close-stories-from-communist-prague> <https://justiceinconflict.org>

2024 10 16 to change the we as well as the me and the you concluding the symposium on info rmers up close Stalin's Library Geoffrey Roberts,2022-02-08 A compelling intellectual biography of Stalin told through his personal library In this engaging life of the twentieth century s most self consciously learned dictator Geoffrey Roberts explores the books Stalin read how he read them and what they taught him Stalin firmly believed in the transformative potential of words and his voracious appetite for reading guided him throughout his years A biography as well as an intellectual portrait this book explores all aspects of Stalin s tumultuous life and politics Stalin an avid reader from an early age amassed a surprisingly diverse personal collection of thousands of books many of which he marked and annotated revealing his intimate thoughts feelings and beliefs Based on his wide ranging research in Russian archives Roberts tells the story of the creation fragmentation and resurrection of Stalin s personal library As a true believer in communist ideology Stalin was a fanatical idealist who hated his enemies the bourgeoisie kulaks capitalists imperialists reactionaries counter revolutionaries traitors but detested their ideas even more Social Functions of Literature Paul Debreczeny,1997 This study of the effect of literature on readers both as individuals and as members of social groups focuses on Russia s national poet Alexander Pushkin as a model for investigating the aesthetic and social functions of literature The individual reader s response to the literary text is demonstrated in Part One through a broad range of memoirs diaries and correspondences in which Russian readers recorded their reactions to Pushkin Among the reactions are testimonies that Pushkin s works helped readers form their personalities provided cathartic relief in times of stress and aided them in releasing their suppressed emotions In his analysis the author draws on various psychological approaches from studies of perception through developmental psychology to psychoanalysis Part Two exposes the extent to which individuals aesthetic responses are conditioned by their social environment Against the backdrop of Russian social history in the early nineteenth century the author describes the dissemination of new aesthetic norms notably the relations of the Russian literary elite to lowbrow and middlebrow groups In this context he analyzes a number of Pushkin imitations with Pushkin s responses to them and links Nikolai Gogol s development as a writer to the social groups surrounding Pushkin Among the other topics discussed are the popularization of Pushkin on the stage and his inclusion in school textbooks and anthologies The aura surrounding the personality of an author is the subject of Part Three in which the author shows how Pushkin s death in a duel with a foreigner contributed to his emergence as a symbol of the Russian nation and how deep seated anxiety about national identity gave rise to the Pushkin myth and to the canonization of the poet as martyr The author also describes how the combined effect of the widespread reading of Pushkin s work and his legend as martyr allowed him to remain Russia s main mythic figure despite the Soviet Union s attempts to supplant him with Lenin Throughout the book theoretical arguments are buttressed by close readings of Pushkin s works especially The Prisoner of the Caucasus Eugene Onegin Poltava Egyptian Nights and several lyric poems

The Fiction of Josef Škvorecký Paul I Trensky,Michaela Harnick,1991-09-09 Profiles in Canadian Literature 7
