Pieri,2015-03-05 The book charts the attempts of Islam s largest missionary movement the Tablighi Jamaat to build Europe s largest mosque in London Key themes include how Islamic movements engage and adapt within liberal democracies and how local contexts are key in understanding how and why movements operate in a given way Six Points of Tabligh Sadruddin 'Amir Ansari,1978

Handbook of Islamic Sects and Movements ,2021-07-15 The Handbook of Islamic Sects and Movements offers a multinational study of Islam its variants influences and neighbouring movements from a multidisciplinary range of scholars These chapters highlight the diversity of Islam especially in its contemporary manifestations as a religion of many communities theologies and ideologies Over five sections on Sunni Shia Sufi fundamentalist and fringe Islamic movements the authors provide historical overviews analyses and in depth studies of large and small Islamic and related groups from all around the world The contents of this volume will be of interest to both newcomers to the study of Islam and established scholars of religion who wish to engage with the dynamic label of Islam and the many impactful movements of the Islamic world From Islamic Revivalism to Islamic Radicalism in Southeast Asia Kamaruzzaman Bustamam-Ahmad,2015-04-01 This book presents an ethnographic study of the Jam ah Tabl gh in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia and Banda Aceh Indonesia It explores the nature of organised religious practice within this Islamic missionary group and illustrates the situation of faith amongst the members which is coloured by Sufist elements A central focus of the study is an exploration of the situation of faith or religious awareness of members of Jam ah Tabl gh by undertaking a detailed examination of the aims and distinctive practices of the organisation in individual chapters The book develops a pyramid of religious awareness which enables an understanding of the religious experiences of Muslims in terms of three aspects shar ah haq qah reality and ma rifah gnosis The pyramid offers a conceptual model of an internal problematic common to Muslims in relation to their beliefs and the organisation and conduct of their daily lives The book is particularly significant for the insights it provides into how a desire to reinstate an Islamic caliphate as part of a return to al Qur an and al Sunnah may be realised in the contemporary period through radical yet non violent means drawing heavily on the mosque based form of government implemented by the Prophet Muhammad in Medina This study will also prove to be useful for studies of other non Islamic religious groups where the religious person is one who submits him or herself to God A further argument of the book is the proposal that the highest level of human being is ins n k mil the perfect man that is one who has utilised his active intelligence The Symbolic Scenarios of Islamism Andrea Mura,2016-03-09 The Symbolic Scenarios of Islamism initiates a dialogue between the discourse of three of the most discussed figures in the history of the Sunni Islamic movement Hasan al Banna Sayyid Qutb and Osama bin Laden and contemporary debates across religion and political theory providing a crucial foundation upon which to situate current developments in world politics Redressing the inefficiency of the terms in which the debate on Islam and Islamism is generally conducted the book examines the role played by tradition modernity and transmodernity as major symbolic scenarios of Islamist discourses highlighting the internal complexity and dynamism of Islamism By uncovering forms of knowledge that have hitherto gone unnoticed or have been marginalised by traditional and dominant approaches to politics accounting for central political ideas in non Western sources and in the Global South the book provides a unique contribution towards rethinking the nature of citizenship antagonism space and frontiers required today While offering valuable reading for scholars of Islamic studies religious studies and politics it provides a critical perspective for academics with an interest in discourse theory post colonial theory political philosophy and comparative political thought

Becoming 'Good Muslim' Bulbul Siddiqi, 2017-11-28 The book uses an ethnographic approach to explore why the Tablighi Jamaat movement remains so successful in contemporary times It shows that this success results from the positive image that it cultivates and the systematic preaching activities of Tablighi Jamaat followers and that the organisation's apolitical image the public profile of the ijtema the humbleness of Tablighi followers and the attraction of belonging to the global Tablighi community all help to create a positive image of the Tablighi Jamaat among ordinary Muslims The book also argues that the Tablighi Jamaat remains successful because of its ability to hold its followers within a Tablighi guided life which is perceived as protection against the Western lifestyle Many elements of contemporary Western lifestyle are considered non Islamic and so by clearly defining what is Islamic and non Islamic in modern society the Tablighi Jamaat provides a way in which Muslims can live in the contemporary world but remain good Muslims

Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity, 2020-03-09 With critical reference to Eisenstadt's theory of multiple modernities Muslim Subjectivities in Global Modernity discusses the role of religion in the modern world The case studies all provide examples illustrating the ambition to understand how Islamic traditions have contributed to the construction of practices and expressions of modern Muslim selfhoods In doing so they underpin Eisenstadt s argument that religious traditions can play a pivotal role in the construction of historically different interpretations of modernity At the same time however they point to a void in Eisenstadt s approach that does not problematize the multiplicity of forms in which this role of religious traditions plays out historically Consequently the authors of the present volume focus on the multiple modernities within Islam which Eisenstadt s theory hardly takes into account Contributors are Philipp Bruckmayr Neslihan Kevser Cevik Dietrich Jung Jakob Krais Mex J rgensen Kamaludeen Nasir Zacharias Pieri Mark Sedgwick Kirstine Sinclair Fabio Vicini and Ahmed al Zalaf THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH1-3 the alternatives presented by apolitical and inwardly focused manifestations of transnational Islamic revival popular among groups like the Hui China's largest Muslim minority This book explores how Muslim revivalists in China's Qinghai Province employ individual agency to reconcile transnational notions of religious orthodoxy with the materialist rationalism of atheist China Based on a year immersed in one of China's most concentrated and conservative urban Muslim communities in Xining the book puts individuals' struggles to navigate theological controversies in the contexts of global Islamic revival and Chinese modernization By doing so it reveals how attempts to revive the original essence of Islam can empower individuals to form peaceful and productive articulations with secular societies and further suggests means of combatting radicalization and encouraging interfaith dialogue As the first major research monograph on Islamic revival in modern China this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Anthropology Islamic Studies and Chinese Studies Travellers in Faith

Muhammad Khalid Masud, 2021-10-25 The Tablighi Jamat is a twentieth century faith renewal movement which is presently operating in more than eighty countries With millions of participants its annual conference has become the second largest Muslim congregation after the Hajj In the absence of official writings and its abstinence from media publicity the Jamat can best be studied by participant observation as illustrated by the studies of its activities in India Britain France Germany Belgium Canada Morocco and South Africa which are presented in this volume Studying the historical and social growth of this movement in India its transnational transformation the development of its ideology particularly on the questions of conversion gender religious diversity organization communication adjustment with the local environment and personal transformation this volume offers fascinating information about contemporary da'wa phenomenon in Islam The Promise of Piety Arsalan Khan, 2024-02-15 In The Promise of Piety Arsalan Khan examines the zealous commitment to a distinct form of face to face preaching dawat among Pakistani Tablighis practitioners of the transnational Islamic piety movement the Tablighi Jamaat This group says that Muslims have abandoned their religious duties for worldly pursuits creating a state of moral chaos apparent in the breakdown of relationships in the family nation and global Islamic community Tablighis insist that this dire situation can only be remedied by drawing Muslims back to Islam through dawat which they regard as the sacred means for spreading Islamic virtue In a country founded in the name of Muslim identity and where Islam is ubiquitous in public life the Tablighis claim that Pakistani Muslims have abandoned Islam is particularly striking The Promise of Piety shows how Tablighis constitute a distinct form of pious relationality in the ritual processes and everyday practices of dawat and how pious relationality serves as a basis for transforming domestic and public life Khan explores both the promise and limits of the Tablighi project of creating an Islamic moral order that can transcend the political fragmentation and violence of life in postcolonial Pakistan
