Postcolonial Literature and Challenges for the New Millennium Lucienne Loh, Malcolm Sen, 2017-10-02 This volume brings together an international range of postcolonial scholars to explore four distinct themes which are inherently interconnected within the globalised landscape of the early 21st century China Islamic fundamentalism civil war and environmentalism Through close reading a range of literary texts by writers drawn from across the globe these essays seek to emphasise the importance of literary aesthetics in situating the theoretical underpinnings and political motivations of postcolonial studies in the new millennium Colonial legacies especially in terms of structuring exploitative capitalist relations between countries and regions are shown to persist in postcolonial nations in the form of global civil wars and systemic environmental waste Chinese authoritarianism and the Indian picturesque represent less familiar forms of neo colonialism These essays not only engage with established writers such as Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai they also critically reflect on work by Nadeem Aslam Mai Couto Romesh Gunsekara Bei Dao and Ma Jian This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice The California Indians Robert F.
