From Culture to Ethnicity to Conflict Jack David Eller, 2025-10-01 In the post Cold War era the most common and often the most violent conflicts are ethnic conflicts Many people including many scholars see ethnic conflicts as a return to the past as contests between ancient and well defined groups with long standing grievances and animosities Jack David Eller argues instead that these conflicts are a defining phenomenon of the new world order that they are in many ways modern day inventions based only loosely on traditional cultures and hostilities From Culture to Ethnicity to Conflict presents in depth case studies on Sri Lanka the Kurds Rwanda and Burundi Bosnia and Quebec along with two theoretical introductory chapters that offer the reader the tools to understand the relationship between culture or tradition and contemporary ethnic conflicts Eller finds that ethnicity is not a simple instantiation of traditional culture nor is conflict a simple consequence of ethnicity Rather each is constructed out of certain raw cultural materials through a process of remembering forgetting interpreting and inventing Ultimately Eller demonstrates these groups are fighting not about culture but with culture No other book combines the level of analysis offered here with in depth case studies of several important examples It will appeal to anyone with an interest in understanding these conflicts It will be assigned reading for students and scholars of cultural diversity and ethnic conflict in anthropology history political science and peace and conflict studies Jack David Eller is Assistant Professor of Anthropology University of Colorado Denver Teikyo Loretto Heights University

Ravana had ruled lay over the island like a fading antique map The edges of the story were frayed and there were lines disconnected by time but the landscape it traced exists Demonized as he was after his death the reign of King Ravana of Lanka and his ancestors the powerful Mayuranga has long been obscured and shrouded in myth Once their kingdom is believed to have reached beyond the shores of the island capturing lands across the seas a kingdom of that magnitude was never seen again on Lanka In a bid to shed light on this lost era Sunela Jayewardene travelled through Sri Lanka and listened to the storytellers and poets researched Sri Lanka s folklore sifted through race and religion to stitch together a history of a forgotten landscape This remarkable vivid book is the story Sunela learnt of King Ravana and the kingdom that he lost

The Sigiriya Royal Gardens Nilan Cooray, 2012-10-19 Besides the efforts that are of a descriptive and celebrative nature studies related to Sri Lanka's historical built heritage largely view material remains in historical sociological socio historical and semiological perspectives There is hardly any serious attempt to view such material remains from a technical analytical approach to understand the compositional aspects of their design The 5th century AC royal complex at Sigiriya is no exception in this regard The enormous wealth of information and the material remains unearthed during more than 100 years of field based research by several generations of archaeologists provide an ideal opportunity for such analysis The Sigiriya Royal Gardens fills the gap in research related to Sri Lanka's historical built heritage in general and to Sigiriya in particular Therefore the present research attempts to read Sigiriya as a landscape architectonic design to expose its architectonic composition and design instruments
