The Cross of St Andrew Ursula Hall, 2006 Saint Andrew Scotland s patron saint was reputedly crucified at Patras on a cross of X shape now the well known white cross on blue of the Saltire flag However the association of the saint with the X shaped cross is not a feature in the early cult of Saint Andrew and does not appear in any of the apocryphal material describing his martyrdom Using both literary and iconographical evidence Ursula Hall attempts to determine when where and how this development in the popular tradition and in the depiction of Saint Andrew s death might have taken place In a clear captivating style Hall examines various written accounts of St Andrew s life and death along with an analysis of the traditions and procedures of crucifixion at the time Pictorial representations of Saint Andrew in mediums such as embroidery seals paintings sculptures and glass work are abundant compared to literary evidence about his tradition Hall examines a variety of these works to uncover the development of iconography and legends surrounding Saint Andrew in Europe England and Scotland Through these studies and in conjunction with an analysis of the functions and context of the X shaped cross in Christian tradition she offers fascinating explanations for the association between the distinctive cross and Scotland s patron saint
