St. Martin's Press Dictionary of Biography Barry O. Jones, Meredith Vibart Dixon, 1986-01-01 The St. Martin's Press Dictionary of Biography Barry O. Jones, Meredith Vibart Dixon, 1986-01-01 Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world Fifteenth Century England a Comprehensive Chronology WM. E. Baumgaertner, 2021-03-02 This is the first volume of what will likely be four volumes of a comprehensive chronological history of fifteenth century England It begins in 1397 a necessary prelude to the rise of Henry IV and carries through to 1509 and the death of Henry VII The series includes inter related chronologies of Scotland Wales Ireland France Burgundy and Brittany Volume I covers from 1397 and the last few years of the reign of Richard II through the entire reigns of Henry IV and Henry V and ends a few months into the reign of Henry VI 1422 In the process it covers wars usurpations land and naval battles parliaments and great council meetings and the lives and deaths of many hundreds of prominent English Welsh Scottish Irish French Burgundian and Breton persons Bibliography of Literature on First Peter Casarella, 2019-07-01 The Bibliography of Literature on First Peter gives comprehensive publication details of a categorized list of articles and books concerned with the exposition of the New Testament letter known as 1 Peter The bibliography which primarily presents works of modern scholarship but also includes important works which have appeared throughout the lengthy period of Christian interpretation has been conceived with the needs of a variety of users in mind It provides an extremely valuable reference tool for all those interested in a deeper understanding of this important document of early Christianity and will meet the needs of researchers of all kinds from lay students to the professional scholar Not every work represented in this bibliography will be of equal use to all but judicious selection on the basis of the helpful classification provided will save the researcher much time Biography across the Digitized Globe, 2025-02-27 This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen the Netherlands Throughout his academic career Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection Over this same period however the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre Through its thirteen thought provoking essays this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources Magick, Mayhem, and Mavericks Cathy Cobb, 2010-09-09 Science popularizer Cathy Cobb takes a unique approach to explaining the concepts of physical chemistry by telling the story of the geniuses and eccentrics who made groundbreaking discoveries in this fascinating field that bridges chemistry physics and mathematics The result is entertaining and illuminating Her tale is about the colorful varieties of human character as well as the struggles to understand the workings of the material world Through true stories of rebels recluses heroes and rogues she helps the reader to discover how one idea built upon another and how an elegant discipline arose out of centuries of difficult trial and error Starting with the ancient Greeks Cobb takes the reader on a sweeping tour of history She shows how an understanding of basic chemical properties gradually arose out of ancient Greeks mathematics Muslim science medieval magick and the healing arts Her tour continues through the scientific revolution the emergence of physical chemistry as an independent discipline and up to the present Today physical chemists contribute to the fields of chemical physiology chemical oscillations and waves quantum mechanics and the curious and promising field of nanotechnology This absorbing eloquently written history of science is loaded with intuitive imagery everyday analogies and a colorful cast of characters who are guaranteed to entertain as well as edify Chambers's Biographical Dictionary J. O. Thorne, 1966 Biographical Index of Artists in Canada Evelyn de Rostaing McMann, 2003-01-01 This index has been compiled as a quick reference guide to biographies of 9 052 professional and amateur artists active in Canada from the seventeenth century to the present The artists represent 42 professional categories from animation to topography In addition to 8 261 Canadian artists the Index has 391 British 300 American and 100 European artists all of whom spent part of their careers in Canada Each entry provides the artist's name date and place of birth and death or years the artist flourished if birth and death dates are not available the nationality if not Canadian type of artist major medium media used and sources in which biographical information may be found Several hundred cross references link the various names used by some artists during the course of their careers Wallace Reid E.J. Fleming, 2013-11-08 For a decade Wallace Reid was the most recognized face in Hollywood the most universally beloved actor in silent film Today all that is widely remembered of Wally Reid is that he died in a padded sanitarium cell the victim of a fatal morphine addiction Of all the actors who have enjoyed great fame only to vanish from the public eye Reid perhaps fell the fastest and the hardest This first full biography recounts Reid's complicated childhood his disrupted family history and his rise to film stardom despite these restricting factors It documents his myriad talents and accomplishments most notably his gift for brilliant onscreen acting The text explores in depth how the modern studio however unconsciously turned the popular star a well adjusted man with a loving family into a drug dependent mental patient within three years His death rocked the foundations of Hollywood and the huge new industry that he helped build nearly died with Dashing Wally Reid

The First Mapping of America Alex

Johnson, 2017-08-23 The First Mapping of America tells the story of the General Survey At the heart of the story lie the remarkable maps and the men who made them the commanding and highly professional Samuel Holland Surveyor General in the North and the brilliant but mercurial William Gerard De Brahm Surveyor General in the South Battling both physical and political obstacles Holland and De Brahm sought to establish their place in the firmament of the British hierarchy Yet the reality in which they had to operate was largely controlled from afar by Crown administrators in London and the colonies and by wealthy speculators whose approval or opposition could make or break the best laid plans as they sought to use the Survey for their own ends
