St Augustine The Passionate Seeker After God And Mystic:

The Theosophist ,1929 Paul Verlaine Stefan Zweig,1913 Paul Verlaine Stefan Zweig,2015-12-27 The works of great artists are silent books of eternal truths And thus it is indelibly written in the face of Balzac as Rodin has graven it that the beauty of the creative gesture is wild unwilling and painful He has shown that great creative gifts do not mean fulness and giving out of abundance On the contrary the expression is that of one who seeks help and strives to emancipate himself A child when afraid thrusts out his arms and those that are falling hold out the hand to passers by for aid similarly creative artists project their sorrows and joys and all their sudden pain which is greater than their own strength They hold them out like a net with which to ensnare like a rope by which to escape Like beggars on the street weighed down with misery and want they give their words to passers by Each syllable gives relief because they thus project their own life into that of strangers Their fortune and misfortune their rejoicing and complaint too heavy for them are sown in the destiny of others man and woman The fertilizing germ is planted at this moment which is simultaneously painful Pioneers of Modern Spirituality Jane Shaw,2018-10-17 Distinguished Anglican theologian Jane Shaw presents four of the early 20th century Anglican innovators in spirituality and assesses how they might help us develop a renewed Anglican spirituality for our own spiritual but not religious age These four Anglicans Percy Deamer Evelyn Underhill Somerset Ward and Rose Macaulay are people who revived spirituality at a time like our own when people were questioning institutional religion The Second Journey Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2020-07-24 Spirituality is our connection to a greater whole It is a journey from God to God and with God and thus a journey toward Self Through this process we come to differentiate between our temporary self called ego and our permanent self the part of us made for ongoing relationship with God In the end we discover that we know God by being known much like one loves by being loved There are two halves or phases in spirituality sometimes flawed sometimes overlapping and other times distinct While many people experience first half of life spirituality most never get to second half of life thinking and living Designed as a study guide for group or individual use The Second Journey examines the development of Christian spirituality starting with its conception in the biblical and Greek philosophical tradition and continuing in orthodox and heterodox expressions Reading this book is like looking through one's favorite album of photographs each illustrating some aspect or dimension vital to spirituality The range of portraits examined is extensive including groups such as Platonists Stoics Gnostics Quakers Revivalists Neo Orthodox and Eastern Orthodox and individuals such as Philo Valentinus Origen Dionysius Augustine Julian of Norwich John of the Cross Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Schleiermacher Kierkegaard Barth Tillich and Richard Rohr Examining traditional and non traditional thinkers readers will discover that knowing God involves both light and darkness usually in that order Spirituality does not make us otherworldly it renders us more fully alive Matthew Fox Mysticism in Medieval India Shankar Gopal Tulpule,Śā.
