Cavadini, 1999 This one volume reference work provides the first encyclopedic treatment of the life thought and influence of Augustine of Hippo A D 354 430 one of the greatest figures in the history of the Christian church The product of more than 140 leading scholars throughout the world this comprehensive encyclopedia contains over 400 articles that cover every aspect of Augustine's life and writings and trace his profound influence on the church and the development of Western thought through the past two millennia. Major articles examine in detail all of Augustine's nearly 120 extant writings from his brief tractates to his prodigious theological works. For many readers this volume is the only source for commentary on the numerous works by Augustine not available in English. Other articles discuss Augustine's influence on other theologians from contemporaries like Jerome and Ambrose to prominent figures throughout church history such as Gregory the Great, Aquinas, Luther, Calvin, and Harnack. Augustine's life, the chaotic political events of his world, and the church's struggles with such heresies as Arianism, Donatism, Manicheism, and Pelagianism. Augustine's thoughts about philosophical problems, time, the ascent of the soul, the nature of truth, theological questions, guilt, original sin, free will, the Trinity, and cultural issues, church-state relations, Roman society.

The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford; they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University. Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers. These range over the whole field, both East and West, from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers. The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents, dates of events, and such like, and some unveil new texts. The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends. The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject. The Saints Collection [2,428 Saints] Catholic Way Publishing, 2015-04-30. Kilmartin,2015-09-22 In the light of its own history the Catholic theology of the Eucharist as it is generally understood today is revealed as a splinter tradition whose deficiencies call for fundamental reformulation The valid aspects of that theology for example the recovery of the role of the Holy Spirit in the new Roman Eucharistic Prayers must be identified and integrated with the faith and practice of the first theological millennium when the lex orandi was not so dominated by the lex credendi In the third theological millennium more attention to the content and structure of the classical Eucharistic Prayers of both East and West will result in a Catholic systematic theology of eucharistic sacrifice that is not only truer to its biblical and patristic foundations but also of ecumenical import closer to some of the theological insights of the Protestant Reformers These highlights of The Eucharist in the West illustrate the great value of this posthumous work Conceptually complete but in only rough draft form at the time of Father Kilmartin's death it has been edited and prepared for publication by Robert J Daly SJ Chapter one describes the characteristics of the eucharistic theology of the Western Latin Fathers Chapter two identifies the more important orientations and developments of the Catholic tradition from early medieval Scholasticism up to the first part of the twelfth century Chapter three singles out the special contribution of early Scholasticism to Latin eucharistic theology Chapter four functions as a bridge from early Scholasticism to high Scholasticism by outlining the general approach to a synthetic theology of the Eucharist which was obtained at the beginning of the thirteenth century Chapter five treats eucharistic theology from high Scholasticism to the Council of Trent Chapter six summarizes the dogmatic teaching of the Council of Trent This is followed in Chapter seven by a treatment of salient features of post Tridentine Eucharistic theology Chapter eight includes an analysis of the practice and theology of Mass stipends Chapter nine includes a detailed analysis of Aquinas's theology of the eucharistic sacrifice Chapter ten offers an account of some recent contributions to the formulation of a theology of the eucharistic sacrifice which have contributed to the modern average Roman Catholic synthesis Robert J Daly SJ is a professor of theology at Boston College and former editor of Theological Studies Edward J Kilmartin SJ 1923 1994 professor for liturgical theology at the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome taught theology first at the Weston Jesuit School of Theology and later at Boston College He served as director of the doctoral program in liturgical studies at the University of Notre Dame
