Staging Hong Kong Gender Performance:

Staging Hong Kong Rozanna Lilley, 1998-12-01 This beautifully written and well informed book presents a comprehensive study of Zuni Icosahedron a Hong Kong avant garde theatre and dance company and calls into question the relationship between culture and politics during the last years of British colonial rule Through both fieldwork and textual analysis the author explores the double bind tensions between Chinese and Western aesthetic forms while examining identity and gender within representation as part of the dramatization of an increasingly uncertain present Incorporating insights from cultural studies feminism anthropology and queer theory this imaginative unpacks current debates over Hong Kong identity through the kaleidoscope of avant garde theatre performances Modern Asian Theatre and Performance 1900-2000 Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., Siyuan Liu, Erin B. Mee, 2014-05-08 Modern Asian Theatre and Performance 1900 2000 is a ground breaking survey tracking the advent of modern drama in Japan India China Korea and Southeast Asia It considers the shaping power of realism and naturalism the influence of Western culture the relationship between theatrical modernisation and social modernisation and how theatre operates in contemporary Asian society Organised by period nation and region each chapter provides a historical overview of the culture an outline of theatre history a survey of significant playwrights actors directors companies plays and productions With contributions from an international team of scholars this authoritative introduction will uniquely equip students and scholars with a broad understanding of the modern theatre histories of Asia Alternative Chinese Opera in the Age of Globalization D. Lei, 2011-02-08 Bringing the study of Chinese theatre into the 21st century Lei discusses ways in which traditional art can survive and thrive in the age of modernization and globalization Building on her previous work this new book focuses on various forms of Chinese opera in locations around the Pacific Rim including Hong Kong Taiwan and California Hong Kong Grant Evans, Maria Tam, 1997-07-01 Hong Kong has become a by word for all that is modern and sparkling in Asia today Yet tourist brochures still play with the old cliché of Hong Kong as a place where East meets West Images of so called traditional China junks sailing Victoria Harbour or old women praying to gods in smoky temples mingle with those portraying Hong Kong as a consumer and business paradise This collection of essays attempts to transcend the old polarities It looks at modern Hong Kong in all its splendour and diversity in the run up to its re absorption into Greater China through the mediums of film food architecture rumors and slang It explores the question of a distinct modern Chinese identity in Hong Kong and even when it explores the traditional stamping ground of the older anthropology in the New Territories it finds a dramatically changed context in particular for women This collection presents an intriguing insight into the process of transition from tradition to modernity in this Modern Chinese Metropolis 香港 Frank Joseph Shulman, Anna See Ping Leon Shulman, 2001-01-01 A descriptively annotated multidisciplinary cross referenced and extensively indexed guide to 2 395 dissertations that are concerned either in whole or in part with Hong Kong and with Hong Kong Chinese students and emigres throughout the world Theatre Histories Phillip B. Ren, 2010-10-04 This book examines the period leading up to the Hong Kong handover in 1997 the countdown of time and by using iconic cultural symbols such as the countdown clock the Hong Kong Museum exhibitions and cultural heritage sites argues that China has undergone a transition to neoliberal state in part through its reunification with Hong Kong The problem of synchronization with the world a Chinese phrase that epitomizes China's engagement with modern capitalism since the first Opium War was characterized throughout the 20th century as a humiliation weakness tragedy and disaster with China in the role of the victim of capitalist globalization During the reunification with Hong Kong these conventional expressions were replaced by new ones such as de humiliation return self esteem and revival Hai Ren gives an ethnographic and historical analysis of this cultural and political transformation of China's globalization experience by looking closely at public history practices in mainland China and Hong Kong and how the reconfiguration of everyday life and cultural norms led to the development of this neoliberal China As a book which straddles Chinese and Hong Kong history politics cultural heritage and museum studies more generally it can be regarded as a work of cultural political economy which will appeal to students and scholars of all of the above The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR Ming K. Chan, Sonny

Shiu-Hing Lo, 2010-04-01 The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is located on the southeastern coast of China and the Macao SAR can be found off of China's southern coast Both regions have recently been released from European colonial rule Hong Kong from British control in 1997 and Macao from Portugal in 1999 As SARs Hong Kong and Macao retain a high degree of autonomy and they control all issues except those of state e.g diplomatic relations and national defense The A to Z of the Hong Kong SAR and the Macao SAR includes maps photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places and events as well as political economic and social background However unlike the rest of the series all these sections are presented in duplicate one for Hong Kong and one for Macao The authoritative analysis and informative data presented clearly elucidate the unique situation of these two territories Hybrid Hong Kong Kwok-bun

Chan, 2013-09-13 Hybrid Hong Kong attempts to attract and excite the intellectual cultural economic and political elites as well as the intelligent laymen of Hong Kong hopefully enough for them to take a closer look at their society while engendering a public discourse on the city's identity its past present and future Hong Kong is at its crossroads With a colonial past and having been handed over and back to China in 1997 the city has since been going through a process of re-sinicification and re-integration not entirely wanted into the Pearl River Delta region of mainland China all of which have far reaching consequences for identity politics culture loyalty and attachment and everyday livelihood The hybridity concept offers an in-between space and time to narrate describe and make sense of the many layers of entanglement of cultural anthropological economic and political forces that impinge impact sometimes confuse even disturb the everyday lives of the Hongkongers who have decided to call the city home The book probes a range of sites and locales of a Hongkonger's natural habitat including film and television ethnicity popular music videos gay identities fashion art theatre Cantopop electronic dance music museum visual arts the Muslim youth food and cuisine and Chinese and western medicines Based on ethnography fieldwork and participant observation Hybrid Hong Kong intends to display and explain hybridity as it is performed in the public as well as private spheres of city life This book was originally published as a special issue of Visual Anthropology
