Staking Claims Confronting Cape Town:

Staking Claims Emma Bedford, 1999      History after Apartheid Annie E. Coombes, 2003-11-24 How should post apartheid South Africa present its history in museums monuments and parks      Expressions of the Body Charlotte Baker, 2009 This book contributes to a growing corpus of writing on the body bringing new perspectives to this fascinating and topical subject Feminist psychoanalytic and queer readings among others have demonstrated the extent of the functions and roles fulfilled by the body as well as the number of critical perspectives it can serve However by and large African representations of the body have been overlooked This coherent volume brings together essays on the portrayal of the body in African art film literature photography and theatre The book includes thematically linked contributions which explore issues of power and representation and reflects current trends in the study of the body and more broadly within the field of African Studies      A Decade of Democracy Iziko Museums of Cape Town, South African National Gallery, 2004 A fitting way of reflecting on the changes of the last decade and assessing the extent to which transformation has had an impact on South Africa      Nka, 1999      Authentic, Ex-centric Salah M. Hassan, Olu Oguibe, Siemon Allen, 2001 Against the musty stereotypes and prejudices that still consider Africa a dark continent full of nameless Third World nations always striving but never managing to catch up with the West Authentic Ex Centric positions Africa as the source of many of the ideas associated with European modernism From Cubism's radical abstraction to 70s performance art and its use of ritual shamanism and magic the influence of African art has long been underappreciated Published in conjunction with an exhibition of the same name held to critical acclaim on the fringes of the 2001 Venice Biennale Authentic Ex centric offers a glimpse of the ways in which African and African and African Diaspora artists have interpreted and translated the aesthetic and social experiences of post colonial Africa into new idioms of artistic expression and argues for their proper location in the broad narrative of global conceptualism Including work by such artists as Maria Magdalena Campos Pons Willem Boshoff Godfried Donkor Rachid Koraichi Berni Searle and Yinka Shonibare      Darkroom Tosha Grantham, Isolde Brielmaier, Tumelo Mosaka, 2009 Photography and video are powerful tools for shaping perception and effecting change as is convincingly portrayed through the images in this catalogue Featuring the works of sixteen South African photographers and video artists from 1950 to the present the catalogue was conceived to accompany the exhibition of the same name at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts The cultural and political turbulence of South Africa has lent particular urgency to the role of these media The eight sections of this catalogue explore a broad spectrum of social and aesthetic themes that have not been brought together in this way before in the United States or abroad Darkroom focuses on four generations of artists including those who lived and worked primarily in South Africa during the apartheid era 1948-1994 and a younger generation that has gained wide international prominence since apartheid's end The title refers to both literal and metaphorical dark rooms the actual place where photography and video is made or seen the artistic isolation created by apartheid and the psychological and physical hardship of making meaningful work under threat of imprisonment torture and exile The images appear as they are organized in the galleries eighty six photographs eight photo based installations and six video installations The artists include native South Africans and long term South African residents from Germany the United States and England Contributing Artists Roger Ballen Ian Berry David Goldblatt William Kentridge Peter Magubane Thando Mama Senzeni Marasela Santu Mofokeng Zwelethu Mthethwa Robin Rhode Tracey Rose J rgen Schadeberg Berni Searle Andrew Tshabangu Nontsikeleiso Veleko Sue Williamson Distributed for the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts     Zwelethu Mthethwa Zwelethu Mthethwa,Okwui Enwezor,2010 Zwelethu Mthethwa s large scale portraits often portray rural immigrants on the margins of South African cities revealing the efforts his subjects make to maintain their cultural identities through their choices in clothing and the decoration of their dwellings and places of worship Mthethwa also addresses the economic and political reality of present day South Africa     Feminist Studies ,2003     Jane Alexander Pep Subirós,2009     The Philani Printing Project Kimberly Anne Miller,2003     10 Years 100 Artists Sophie Perryer,2004 Celebrating ten years of democracy with a showcase of contemporary South African photography     Artes Mundi Tessa Jackson,2004 This publication gives the background to the Artes Mundi Prize for visual arts and explores the work of the shortlisted artists in specially commissioned essays     ALA Bulletin African Literature Association,1999     Staking Their Claims David Fig,2007 How responsive are South African corporations to their social and environmental responsibilities Given the extremes of economic inequality is business generally proactive in redressing the legacy of apartheid or does it only respond to regulation These are among the questions treated in this new book based on research conducted for a United Nations project It breaks new ground in emerging from a tradition of applied social science rather than industrial sponsorship It is therefore free to ask and answer questions not usually raised in the debates about corporate behavior Staking Their Claims presents sectoral studies on the chemical mining and food industries It also examines crosscutting issues such as the response of business to black economic empowerment and the AIDS pandemic The book provides vital insights for corporate leaders business schools social analysts investors and those in the field of corporate social and environmental responsibility
