Stalins Nose Across The Face Of Europe:

Stalin's Nose Rory MacLean,1992 Stalin's Nose Rory Maclean,2013-07-15 A Tamworth pig a coffin two aunts a battered Trabant and the fall of Berlin Wall Stalin s Nose is an exceptionally vivid story of a journey from Berlin to Moscow at the end of the Cold War through an eastern Europe divested of fear and free to face its past revealing what life was truly like under totalitarian rule The Long Journey Maria Pia Di Bella,Brian Yothers,2020-11-01 Travel writing has for centuries composed an essential historical record and wide ranging literary form reflecting the rich diversity of travel as a social and cultural practice metaphorical process and driver of globalization This interdisciplinary volume brings together anthropologists literary scholars social historians and other scholars to illuminate travel writing in all its forms With studies ranging from colonial adventurism to the legacies of the Holocaust The Long Journey offers a unique dual focus on experience and genre as it applies to three key realms memory and trauma confrontations with the Other and the cultivation of cultural perspective Our Nazis Petra Rau,2013-05-20 An analysis of the resurgent cultural fascination with Nazism since 1989 Why has a fascination with fascism re emerged after the Cold War What is its cultural function now in an era of commemoration Focusing particularly on the British context this study offers the first analysis of contemporary popular and literary fiction film TV and art exhibitions about Nazis and Nazism Petra Rau brings this material into dialogue with earlier responses to fascism and demonstrates how paradoxically Nazism has been both mediated and mythologised to the extent that it now often replaces a critical engagement with actual violent history In 5 thematic chapters on Nazi Noir Men in Uniform Vile Bodies The Good German and Meta Cinematic Farce Rau provides close analysis of contemporary novels such as Jason Lutes graphic novel series Berlin historical crime fiction by Philip Kerr and others Robert Harris Fatherland Ian McEwan s Black Dogs and Justin Cartwright s The Song Before It Is Sung films such as Bryan Singer s Valkyrie and Quentin Tarantino s Inglorious Bastards art installations including Mirroring Evil Nazi Imagery Recent Art and Fucking Hell by Jake and Dinos Chapman and Piotr Uklanski s photo frieze Untitled The Nazis Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Shirley Smith Sarah Gaitanos,2020-05-01 Shirley Smith was one of the most remarkable New Zealanders of the 20th century a woman whose lifelong commitment to social justice legal reform gender equality and community service left a profound legacy She was born in Wellington in 1916 While her childhood was clouded by loss her mother died when she was three months old and her beloved father lawyer and later Supreme Court Judge David Smith served overseas during the war she had a privileged upbringing She studied classics at Oxford University where she threw herself into social cultural and political activities Despite contracting TB and spending months in a Swiss clinic she graduated with a good Second and an intellectual and moral education that would guide her through the rest of her life She returned to New Zealand when war broke out and taught classics at Victoria and Auckland University Colleges before marrying eminent economist and public servant Dr W B Sutch in 1944 and giving birth to a daughter in 1945 She kept her surname unusual at the time and poured her energy into issues of human rights and social causes She qualified as a lawyer at the age of 40 and in her career of 40 years broke down many barriers her relationship with the Mongrel Mob epitomising her role as a champion of the marginalised and vulnerable In 1974 Bill Sutch was arrested and charged with espionage After a sensational trial he was acquitted by a jury but the question of his guilt has never been settled in the court of public opinion Shirley had reached her own political turning point in 1956 with Khrushchev's revelations about Stalin and the Hungarian crisis but she remained loyal to her husband and the ongoing controversy weighed on her later years Shirley Smith An Examined Life tells the story of a remarkably warm and generous woman one with a rare gift for frankness an implacable sense of principle and a personality of complexity and formidable energy Her life was shaped by some of the Cultural Politics in International Relations Paul Sheeran, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 Questioning the authority of the discipline of international relations in particular structural realism to recognize the influence of varied social phenomena on possible outcomes this book demonstrates how seemingly insignificant acts propagated through music humour and poetry can disturb official culture and initiate social change This thought provoking work is compelling reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of both international relations and cultural studies alike

Balkan Departures Wendy Bracewell, Alex Drace-Francis, 2009-05-01 In writings about travel the Balkans appear most often as a place travelled to Western accounts of the Balkans revel in the different and the exotic the violent and the primitive traits that serve according to many commentators as a foil to self congratulatory definitions of the West as modern progressive and rational However the Balkans have also long been travelled from The region's writers have given accounts of their travels in the West and elsewhere saying something in the process about themselves and their place in the world The analyses presented here ranging from those of 16th century Greek humanists to 19th century Romanian reformers to 20th century writers socialists and men of the world suggest that travellers from the region have also created their own identities through their encounters with Europe Consequently this book challenges assumptions of Western discursive hegemony while at the same time exploring Balkan Occidentalisms
