

PRINTED CLIPBOARDS

It's a new year, a fresh start, and time to make those resolutions. I usually make one that involves being more organized. I tend to work on small scraps of paper that pile up or get pushed into the back of a sketchbook. Last year I made clipboards and hung them in a row above my desk and it worked! I can now have a board for each project and keep my desk free of loose paper, with more room for making. Hand-printing is a lovely way to personalize your makes. Once you have cut your printing stamps you can use them on all sorts of projects, from gift wrap, greetings cards, and gift tags to fabric.

1 To make an oval-shaped pattern, use a rectangular eraser. Draw a leaf shape along the whole length of the eraser using a soft pencil. Using a craft knife, and working on a cutting mat, cut out the leaf shape.

2 With the fine cutting tool, score lines across the width of the oval shape. Draw some pencil lines to help place the grooves in or out frequency. Make the lines different thicknesses by applying more or less pressure as you cut. Score a few lines that cross over each other to give you a more textured surface.

YOU WILL NEED

- Selection of erasers
- Soft pencil
- Craft knife
- Cutting mat
- Fine cutting tool
- Sheets of letter-size (A4) white paper
- Ink stamping pads
