The Hussay Festival in Jamaica Martha Warren Beckwith, 1924 Jamaican Creole Proverbs Aleksandra R. Knapik, 2019-12-20 Jamaican Creole like many other contact languages has taken its ultimate shape through the course of multi lingual and multi cultural influences From the perspective of contact linguistics this meticulous study examines Jamaican Creole proverbs in a corpus of over 1090 recorded sayings it presents a framework of cultural changes in Jamaica accompanied by corresponding linguistic changes in its creole The analysis clearly demonstrates that despite three centuries of extreme dominance by the British empire Jamaicans successfully preserved the traditions of their own ancestors Not only that The poly layered stimulus of various factors geographic cultural and most prominently linguistic helped create a unique phenomenon Jamaican creole culture The vibrant life of the Jamaican people and their African background is best encapsulated in their proverbs proverbs which constitute generations of wisdom passed from the 16th century and on John R Rickford J E Wallace Sterling Professor of Linguistics and the Humanities Stanford University The research theme of the very publication entitled Jamaican Proverbs from the Perspective of Contact Linguistics is a successful analysis of both linguistic and cultural contacts between English and African cultures that have been shaping the vernacular language of Jamaica. The study material consists of 1092 proverbs all of which can be regarded as a first hand record of sociolinguistic events that have had important influence upon the formation of the Jamaican creole language and its registers. Dr Knapik proves beyond any reasonable doubt that the Jamaican linguistic and cultural world is a great example of a thriving microcosm which continues to incorporate various elements and can also very well serve as the basis for future research on patterns of language and culture development. prof dr hab dr h c mult Jacek Fisiak Jamaica Proverbs Martha Warren Beckwith, 1925

Female Child Soldiering, Gender Violence, and Feminist Theologies Susan Willhauck, 2019-09-10 This book examines the phenomenon of female child soldiering from various theological perspectives. It is an interdisciplinary work that brings Christian feminist theologies into dialogue to analyze the complex ethical geopolitical social and theological issues involved in the militarization of girls and women and gender based violence. With contributions from a range of interdisciplinary and multicultural authors this book offers reflections and perspectives that coalesce as a comprehensive overview of feminist theological insights into child soldiering. Mixed Company Yvonne Brewster, 2012-06-27 In 2012 Jamaica celebrates the 50th anniversary of Independence. Mixed Company is a collection of three of the finest early Jamaican theatrical works written for the most part before the dawn of Independence. Written in 1954 The Creatures by Cicely Waite Smith 1960 Bedward by Louis Marriot and 1970 Maskerade by Sylvia Wynter the plays are examples of works conceived with a Jamaican audience in mind a Jamaican audience conscious of the melting pot in which it lived. Each offers a unique perspective on the spirit of a people who held on to traditional beliefs and customs in the face of colonial opprobrium as the populace struggled to gain its political social and cultural independence. Yvonne Brewster talks to Woman's Hour about Jamaican independence.

Genesis (Baker Commentary on the Old Testament: Pentateuch) John Goldingay, 2020-11-17 Highly regarded Old Testament scholar John Goldingay offers a substantive and useful commentary on the book of Genesis that is both critically engaged and sensitive to the theological contributions of the text. This volume the first in a new series on the Pentateuch complements the successful Baker Commentary on the Old Testament Wisdom and Psalms series. Series volumes have sold over 55 000 copies. Each series volume will cover one book of the Pentateuch addressing important issues and problems that flow from the text and exploring the contemporary relevance of the Pentateuch. The series editor is Bill T Arnold the Paul S Amos Professor of Old Testament Interpretation at Asbury Theological Seminary. Parliamentary Debates Victoria.
