The Cemetery With Freeze Tag And The Fever:

Frightening Fiction Kimberly Reynolds, Geraldine Brennan, Kevin McCarron, 2004-12-30 Edited by Morag Styles and written by an international team of acknowledged experts this series provides jargon free critical discussion and a comprehensive guide to literary and popular texts for children Each book introduces the reader to a major genre of children s literature covering the key authors major works and contexts in which those texts are published read and studied The development of the horror genre in children s literature has been a startling phenomenon one that has provoked strong but mixed reactions Frightening Fiction provides a lucid and lively guide to that genre ranging from analyses of such popular series as Point Horror Goosebumps the X Files and the Buffy stories to the work of individual authors such as Robert Westall David Almond Philip Gross and Lesley Howarth

What Is English Teaching? Davis, Chris, 1996-03-01 Is it the role of English teachers to teach basic literacy skills If not what do English teachers think they should be doing How should basic literacy be taught in schools These are important questions which have recently attracted significant political media and parental debate In addressing them this book explores the question What is English Teaching from a variety of perspectives including teachers beliefs about what they should be teaching the views of the government and the reality of young people s experiences in the 1990s In particular it explores the question of how and even whether the English subject area is capable of meeting its own and the outside world s expectations for teaching not only its specialist concerns but also general literacy The book explores ways in which the teaching of English might develop for instance by balancing its efforts evenly between literature study media study and knowledge about language and how it might contribute to wider literacy teaching by sharing its distinctive teaching strategies with teachers of other subjects
