The Conquest Of Copper Mountain:

The Conquest of Copper Mountain Forbes Wilson, 1981 The Politics of Power Denise Leith, 2002-10-31 Even as Major General Suharto consolidated his power in the bloodletting of the mid sixties Freeport McMoRan the American transnational mining company signed a contract with the new military regime the first foreign company to do so Today in the isolated jungles of West Papua a region that is increasingly restive under Indonesian rule Freeport lays claim to the world's largest gold mine and one of its richest and most profitable copper mines This volume is the first major analysis of the company's presence in Indonesia It takes a close and detailed look at the changing nature of power relations between Freeport and Suharto the Indonesian military the traditional landowners the Amungme and Kamoro and environmental and human rights groups It examines how and why an American company despite such rigorous home state laws was able to operate in West Papua with impunity for nearly thirty years and adapt to indeed thrive in a business culture anchored in corruption collusion and nepotism Standing on the Shoulders of Giants Wardiman Djojonegoro, 2019-10-28 I'm happy to have been a part of history however small my role was The words of Wardiman Djojonegoro reveal Indonesian history the way only a man who worked alongside Ali Sadikin B J Habibie and Soeharto can The modest 85 year old a former education minister and current foundation chairman at the Habibie Center recalls the younger days of a big village Jakarta and says it was the country's third president who taught him the keys to national development This is what Peter Zack a reporter for the Jakarta Globe wrote on 18 April 2009 In the present English translation of his 2014 memoir Standing on the Shoulders of Giants Reminiscences of Working with Three Great Indonesians 1966-1998 Wardiman invites us to take a walk down memory lane and in so doing he tells us something about his life and career as well as sharing his thoughts on a lifetime of public service under three great Indonesians He also tells us about his secrets of how to age gracefully and his thoughts on the future of Indonesian education The book's core theme can be summed up in his reply to a high school student who asked him about the key to his lifetime success Wherever you are placed do your best Ski, 1979-10 Between the Tides David Pickell, 2003-04-15 Featuring hundreds of original color photographs this fascinating study of New Guinea chronicles the rituals and daily life of this remote and culturally rich region Between the Tides offers a compelling mix of New Guinean storytelling history natural history politics and culture David Pickell brings warmth and intelligence to his subject and Kal Muller's photographs are surprising and evocative Together author and photographer show how an isolated nomadic past meets a worldly urban future history confronts superstition and a false and imposed sense of shame yields to a new and still fragile pride Their journey took them from the dusty New Guinea frontier town of Timika to tiny Lakahia island along two hundred miles of twisting mangrove creeks and the relentlessly uncooperative Arafura sea What they found was a culture facing the delicate sometimes humorous occasionally painful and always interesting process of change The Invention of God Bill Lauritzen, 2011-01-15 How did mythology and religion first begin Where did the ideas of God spirit and soul come Antony Hooper, 2005-04-01 Throughout the South Pacific, notions of culture and development are very much alive in political debate, the media, sermons, and endless discussions amongst villagers and the urban lites, even in policy reports. Often the terms are counterposed, and development along with economic rationality, good governance, and progress is set against culture or custom, tradition and identity. The decay of custom and impoverishment of culture are often seen as wrought by development, while failures of development are haunted by the notion that they are due somehow to the darker, irrational influences of culture. The problem is to resolve the contradictions between them so as to achieve the greater good: access to material goods, welfare, and amenities, modern life without the sacrifice of the traditional values and institutions that provide material security and sustain diverse social identities. Resolution is sought in this book by a number of leading writers from the South Pacific, including Langi Kavaliku, Epeli Hau'ofa, Marshall Sahlins, Malama Meleisea, Joeli Veitayaki, and Tarcisius Tara Kabutaulaka. The volume is brought together for UNESCO by Antony Hooper, Professor Emeritus at the University of Auckland. UNESCO experts include Richard Engelhardt, Langi Kavaliku, Russell Marshall, Malama Meleisea, Edna Tait, and Mali Voi.

JFK vs. Allen Dulles Greg Poulgrain, 2020-11-17 For those interested in the assassination of JFK, the untold story of Indonesia's gold, JFK, Allen Dulles, the CIA, and secret military coups. Two of the most fascinating figures in history, John F. Kennedy, thirty-fifth president of the United States, and Allen Dulles, our nation's longest-serving CIA director, often clashed over intelligence issues and national security. However, one such conflict has remained in the shadows until now: JFK vs. Allen Dulles. Battleground Indonesia takes the reader to the vast archipelago, 3350 miles wide, where this secret showdown occurred. In 1936, Allen Dulles established a company, discovered the world's largest gold deposit in remote New Guinea. In 1962, President Kennedy intervened, and New Guinea was added to President Sukarno's Indonesia. Neither Sukarno nor JFK was aware of the gold, since Dulles had not informed Kennedy. Dulles planned a complicated and ruthless CIA regime change strategy to seize control, not only of Indonesia itself but also of its vast resources, including the gold. This strategy included a push to start a Malaysian Confrontation. Yet Kennedy's plan to visit Jakarta in early 1964 would have sunk Dulles' master plan, which included the destruction of the Indonesian communist party as a wedge to split Moscow and Beijing. Only an assassin's bullet put an end to Kennedy's plan of peace. Did Allen Dulles arrange for JFK to be killed to save his plan and his gold? Was his coup for gold successful with JFK out of the picture? Using archival records as a basis, Greg Poulgrain adds word-of-mouth evidence from those people who were directly involved, such as Dean Rusk and others who worked with President Kennedy and Allen Dulles at the time, or the person who was with Michael Rockefeller when he mysteriously disappeared in West New Guinea during this whole affair.
