Iran Nikki R. Keddie,2013-10-28 First Published in 1983 This book brings together the best of Professor Keddie s articles on Iran both published and newly written and spans almost two decades Long before the current religious political alliance in Iran startled the world and toppled the Shah Prof Keddie undertook a series of studies that reveal the social economic doctrinal and political roots of what she was the first to call the Religious Radical alliance in Iran      The Economics of the Indian Ocean Slave Trade in the Nineteenth Century William Gervase Clarence-Smith,2013-12-16 First Published in 1989 Well over a million slaves were exported from Indian Ocean and Red Sea ports in Eastern Africa during the nineteenth century and millions more were shifted around the interior of the continent and along the coast of East Africa And yet we still know remarkably little about this great movement of people particularly from an economic point of view This is a collection of twelve essays looking at the economics of the Indian Ocean and the Red Sea Slave trades of the nineteenth century      The Middle East Bernard Lewis,1995 A 2000 year history of a region stretching from Libya to Central Asia concludes with the effects of the Gulf War      Iran at the Paris Peace Conference Philip Grobrien,2024-06-27 The end of the Qajar era in Iran despite the accepted narrative of decline was in fact an occasion of modern and forward thinking nationalism Iran developed an imperial nationalism which was informed by its experiences under British and Russian hegemony and the absorption of Western modern ideas and practices and which now looked towards a future as a sovereign and independent state within the foundational framework of its previous Empire Emboldened by post WWI notions of self determination and the development of international institutions devoted to peace Iran spearheaded its new found diplomacy by sending a delegation to the peace talks in Paris in 1919 This book shows how Iran s immediate post war diplomacy came about the conduct of Iran s delegation to Paris frustrations with the Anglo Persian Agreement and ultimately how Iran s progress became the victim of British imperialism Throwing a spotlight on an under researched period of Iranian history it will be of interest to readers of Iranian history and those interested in the Paris Peace Conference of 1919      Iran Divided Shireen T. Hunter,2014-09-17 Iranian politics has been marked by sharp ideological divisions and infighting These divides kept largely out of public view until the 1990s came to greater light with the contested 2009 presidential elections To explain the diverse and complex forces that led to this event and that animate Iran s current fractured society and polity author Shireen T Hunter looks beyond the battle between the forces of reform and reaction democracy and dictatorship and considers the historic forces that created the conditions faced by Iran since the revolution Iran Divided The Historic Roots of Iranian Debates on Identity Culture and Governance in the 21st Century explains historical and political factors and their relevance to Iran today shedding light on the forces behind Iranian politics and society This book discusses historical roots of Iran s current divisions and debates Iran versus Islam secularism versus religion constitutionalism versus Islamic government fundamental issues of identity culture and governance aging of the revolutionary coalition development of new elites experiences of the Islamic republic and new international conditions moving the country beyond old divides and ideological rifts toward a new national consensus A comprehensive survey the book will be an indispensable tool to any student seeking to understand the Islamic Republic of Iran and its standing in the world today Civil Society and Democracy in Iran Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2011-12-30 In this timely informative edited volume major Iranian scholars and civic actors address some of the most pressing questions about Iranian civil society and the process of democratization in Iran They describe the role of Iranian civil society in the process of transition to democracy in Iran and offer insight about the enduring legacy of previous social and political movements starting with the Constitutional Revolution of 1906 in the struggle for democracy in Iran Each contributor looks at different aspects of Iranian civil society to address the complex nature of the political order in Iran and the possibilities for secularization and democratization of the Iranian government Various contributors analyze the impact of religion on prevailing democratic thought discussing reformist religious movements and thinkers and the demands of religious minorities Others provide insight into the democratic implications of recent Iranian women's rights movements call for secularism within government and the pressure placed on the existing theocracy by the working class The contributors address these and related issues in all their richness and complexity and offer a set of discussions that is both accessible and illuminating for the reader Modernization, Democracy, and Islam Shireen T. Hunter, Huma Malick, 2005-01-30 The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion but factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The Islamic world has a poor record in terms of modernization and democracy However the source of this situation is not religion Islam but rather factors including colonialism international economic and trading systems and the role of the military among others Recognizing these themes allows the consideration of possible remedies for change in the Muslim world The distinguished scholars contributing to this volume identify key factors some intrinsic to the Muslim world and some external that contribute to Islam's current predicament Contrary to much prevailing thought and opinion Islam is neither monolithic nor impervious to change It is neither anti democratic nor inherently anti modernization Islam itself as this book shows is not the root cause of the malaise of the Islamic world Handbook Global History of Work Karin Hofmeester, Marcel van der Linden, 2017-11-20 Coffee from East Africa wine from California chocolate from the Ivory Coast all those every day products are based on labour often produced under appalling conditions but always involving the combination of various work processes we are often not aware of What is the day to day reality for workers in various parts of the world and how was it in the past How do they work today and how did they work in the past These and many other questions comprise the field of the global history of work a young discipline that is introduced with this handbook In 8 thematic chapters this book discusses these aspects of work in a global and long term perspective paying attention to several kinds of work Convict labour slave and wage labour labour migration and workers of the textile industry but also workers organisation strikes and motivations for work are part of this first handbook of global labour history written by the most renowned scholars of the profession

Introduction to the Modern Economic History of the Middle East Zvi Yehuda Hershlag,1980 The Iranian Constitutional Revolution, 1906-1911 Janet Afary,1996 During the Iranian Constitutional Revolution of 1906 to 1911 a variety of forces played key roles in overthrowing a repressive regime Afary sheds new light on the role of ordinary citizens and peasantry the status of Iranian women and the multifaceted structure of Iranian society War and Peace in Qajar Persia Roxane Farmanfarmaian,2008-01-30 With new and existing evidence being reconsidered this edited collection takes a multidisciplinary approach to discussing the Qajar system within the context of the wars that engulfed it and the periods of peace that ensued It throws new light on the decision making processes the restraints on action and the political exigencies at play during the Qajar years

British Imperialism in Qajar Iran H. Lyman Stebbins,2016-12-18 In 1888 there were just four British consulates in the country by 1921 there were twenty three H Lyman Stebbins investigates the development and consequences of British imperialism in Iran in a time of international rivalry revolution and world war While previous narratives of Anglo Iranian relations have focused on the highest diplomatic circles in Tehran London Calcutta and St Petersburg this book argues that British consuls and political agents made the vast southern borderlands of Iran the real centre of British power and influence during this period Based on British consular archives from Bushihr Shiraz Sistan and Muhammarah this book reveals that Britain India and Iran were linked together by discourses of colonial knowledge and patterns of political military and economic control It also contextualizes the emergence of Iranian nationalism as well as the failure and collapse of the Qajar state during the Iranian Constitutional Revolution and the First World War Fragile Resistance John Foran,2019-04-09 This book analyzes the processes of social transformation in Iran from the height of the country s power in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries under the Safavid dynasty to the aftermath of the startling revolution that overthrew the Pahlavi monarchy in 1979

Fazlur Rahman,2017-07-21 As Professor Fazlur Rahman shows in the latest of a series of important contributions to Islamic intellectual history the characteristic problems of the Muslim modernists the adaptation to the needs of the contemporary situation of a holy book which draws its specific examples from the conditions of the seventh century and earlier are by no means new In Professor Rahman s view the intellectual and therefore the social development of Islam has been impeded and distorted by two interrelated errors The first was committed by those who in reading the Koran failed to recognize the differences between general principles and specific responses to concrete and particular historical situations This very rigidity gave rise to the second major error that of the secularists By teaching and interpreting the Koran in such a way as to admit of no change or development the dogmatists had created a situation in which Muslim societies faced with the imperative need to educate their people for life in the modern world were forced to make a painful and self defeating choice either to abandon Koranic Islam or to turn their backs on the modern world Bernard Lewis New York Review of Books In this work Professor Fazlur Rahman presents a positively ambitious blueprint for the transformation of the intellectual tradition of Islam theology ethics philosophy and jurisprudence Over the voices advocating a return to Islam or the reestablishment of the Sharia the guide for action he astutely and soberly asks What and which Islam More importantly how does one get to normative Islam The author counsels and passionately demonstrates that for Islam to be actually what Muslims claim it to be comprehensive in scope and efficacious for every age and place Muslim scholars and educationists must reevaluate their methodology and hermeneutics In spelling out the necessary and sound methodology he is at once courageous serious and profound Wadi Z Haddad American Arab Affairs
