The Economics of Wealth Creation British Association for the Advancement of Science. Section F (Economics),1992
This important book explores many different aspects of the wealth creation process It includes new essays by senior members of the economics profession focusing on aspects of competitive advantage the environment the integration of trade manufacturing and services the policies of wealth creation and economic policy The creation of wealth lies at the heart of the economic process and is fundamental to the efficient working of the modern economy The economics of wealth creation
British Association for the Advancement of Science. Section F (Economics),1992 The Age of Direct Citizen Participation
Nancy C. Roberts,2015-01-28 Citizen involvement is considered the cornerstone of democratic theory and practice Citizens today have the knowledge and ability to participate more fully in the political technical and administrative decisions that affect them On the other hand direct citizen participation is often viewed with skepticism even wariness Many argue that citizens do not have the time preparation or interest to be directly involved in public affairs and suggest instead that representative democracy or indirect citizen participation is the most effective form of government Some of the very best writings on this key topic which is at the root of the entire reinventing government movement can be found in the journals that ASPA publishes or sponsors In this collection Nancy Roberts has brought together the emerging classics on the ongoing debate over citizen involvement Her detailed introductory essay and section openers frame the key issues provide historical context and fill in any gaps not directly covered by the articles More than just an anthology The Age of Direct Citizen Participation provides a unique and useful framework for understanding this important subject It is an ideal resource for any Public Administration course involving citizen engagement and performance management American Book Publishing Record ,2007 *Report of the ...
