treatment of sexuality Arguing that a history of European nineteenth century sexuality must also be a history of race it will change the way we think about Foucault The Education of Desire Robert Sheppard,1988 The Education of Desire Harvey J. Kaye, 1992 Kaye addresses the much debated question of the role of intellectuals in the making of history and social change and insists upon the necessity of continuing to ask classical and fundamental Marxist questions about exploitation oppression and struggle Desire and Human Flourishing Magdalena Bosch, 2020-07-23 This book discusses the concept of desire as a positive factor in human growth and flourishing All human decision making is preceded by some kind of desire and we act upon desires by either rejecting or following them It argues that our views on and expressions of desire in various facets of life and through time have differed according to how human beings are taught to desire Therefore the concept has tremendous potential to affect human beings positively and to enable personal growth Though excellent research has been done on the concepts of flourishing character education and positive psychology no other work has linked the concept of desire to all of these topics Featuring key references explanations of central concepts and significant practical applications of desire to various fields of human thought and action the book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of positive psychology positive education moral philosophy and virtue ethics Desire, Education and Teaching Håvard Asvoll, 2025-06-19 Exploring the implications of a novel theory of educational desire on the prevailing modes of educational research and theory this book contextualises the realm of education studies through the challenging philosophies and theories of Lacan thereby providing a genuinely alternative approach to the study of education Structured into three main parts the book provides a discussion of Lacanian ideas within educational research by setting out a description and analysis of how a theory of desire may work in educational settings and practice Using vignettes and examples to drive the discussion chapters explore the pivotal aspects of desire which could be imaginary symbolic or real elucidated by a mapping of discourses and exploring the reluctance of educational studies to engage with themes related to desire and psychoanalysis Ultimately the book argues for the need to disrupt the theoretical and practical logics and models that limit teacher practice such as accountability visible learning competencies pedagogical knowledge and professional development and how these can be better understood from a Lacanian perspective This book will be of use to scholars researchers and academics in the fields of the philosophy of education the theory of education and teachers and teacher education more broadly Those specifically interested in Lacanian psychoanalysis and a Lacanian view on how the concept of desire may influence educational research and practice will also find the book of use The Education of Language Minority Immigrants in the United States Terrence G. policy related to this group Humanizing Education in the 3rd Millennium R. Scott Webster, Timo Airaksinen, Poonam Batra, Margarita Kozhevnikova, 2022-06-20 This book proposes some insights and ideas into how education might be humanized The chapters inform provoke and guide further inquiries into imagining and actualizing human education It presents the view that education should be primarily understood as human education which offers universal good for the entire planet It centres around the significant values that make life in a holistic sense meaningful worthwhile and socially just It discusses the fundamental idea that human education is the key to peace individual and social freedoms social justice and harmony fraternity and happiness all over the world and how educational ideals and methods must be reconsidered to achieve this end This book originates from an international conference and round table Human Education in the 3rd Millennium in July 2019 in Dharamsala India Proceedings of the International Congress of Education of the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, July 25-28, 1893 International Congress of Education, 1895 The Education of Character; with Hints on Moral Training afterwards ELLIS STICKNEY (Sarah), 1856 Democracy, Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Peter Jarvis, 2008-06-10 This is a book with a difference it produces a completely new perspective on lifelong learning and the learning society and locates them within humanity itself Five themes run through this book Humankind has always been aware of the imperfections of human society as a consequence it has looked back to a mythological past and forward to a utopian future that might be religious political economic or even educational to find something better Lifelong learning as we currently see it is like two sides of the same coin we learn in order to be workers who produce and learn we have a need to consume We then devour the commodities we have produced whilst others take the profits One of the greatest paradoxes of the human condition has been the place of the individual in the group community or conversely how the groups allow the individual to exist rather than stifle individuality Modernity is flawed and the type of society that we currently have which we in the West call a learning society is in need of an ethical overhaul in this late modern age There is a need to bring a different perspective both political and ethical on lifelong learning and the learning society in order to try to understand what the good society and the good life might become In Democracy Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society the third volume of his trilogy on lifelong learning Professor Jarvis expertly addresses the issues that arise from the vision of the learning society The book concludes that since human beings continue to learn so the learning society must be a process within the incomplete project of humanity All three books in the trilogy will be essential reading for students in education HRD and teaching and learning generally in addition to academics and informed practitioners The Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Trilogy Volume 1 Towards a Comprehensive Theory of Human Learning Volume 2 Globalisation Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Volume 3 Democracy Lifelong Learning and the Learning Society Peter Jarvis is an internationally renowned expert in the field of adult learning and continuing education He is Professor of Continuing Education at the University of Surrey UK and honorary Adjunct Professor in Adult Education at the
