BOOK JACKET Elusive Signs Bruce Nauman, Joseph D. Ketner, Janet Kraynak, Gregory Volk, 2006-03-03 Images of nearly all Bruce Nauman's signs and room installation using neon and fluorescent light from Window or Wall Sign 1967 to the monumental One Hundred Live and Die 1984 accompanied by interpretive essays Intrigued and inspired by the neon beer signs on shopfronts in his San Francisco neighborhood Bruce Nauman created his first neon piece Window or Wall Sign in 1967 He wanted he said to achieve an art that would kind of disappear that was supposed to not quite look like art Light offered Nauman a medium both elusive and effervescent but one that could also aggressively convey a message Over the first three decades of his career Nauman used the medium of light to explore the twists and turns of perception logic and meaning with the earnest playfulness that characterizes all his art Elusive Signs focuses on the discrete body of Nauman's work that uses neon and fluorescent light in signs and room installations and includes images of nearly all Nauman's work with light After Window or Wall Sign Nauman embarked on a series of neons that grappled with the semiotics of body and identity and with My Name as Though it Were Written on the Surface of the Moon 1968 he forces the viewer to contemplate the role of naming in forming identity Language signs and symbols plays an important role in Nauman's art His later neon works emphasize the neon as a sign presenting provocative twists of language and offering harsh and humorous sociopolitical commentary in such pieces as Run from Fear Fun from Rear 1972 This series culminates in the monumental billboard size One Hundred Live and Die 1984 which employs overwhelming scale to bombard the viewer with sardonic aphorisms In incisive essays that accompany the images of Nauman's work Joseph Ketner II of the Milwaukee Art Museum which originated the exhibit this book accompanies and critics Janet Kraynak and Gregory Volk analyze the works in light both as a body of work and as an access point to Nauman's entire career Distributed for the Milwaukee Art Museum Guston in Time Ross Feld, 2022-05-24 In this warm and vibrant work of memoir and criticism a young writer forges a friendship with Philip Guston one of the most influential and controversial painters of the twentieth century The late work of Philip Guston has had a profound influence on painters today but as Guston's star has risen it has been forgotten how scandalous these paintings with their cartoonish imagery and almost fumbling application of paint were initially deemed to be The 1970 show at the Marlborough Gallery in which Guston abandoning the delicate abstract expressionism for which he was known revealed his new style was critically savaged In the aftermath of this drubbing he retreated to his studio in Woodstock New York in part to nurse his wounds but more important to go on painting exactly as he saw fit Ross Feld a young poet novelist and critic was one of the rare critics to respond favorably to Guston's late work Guston answered with a grateful note and a new friendship was soon born Guston in Time written not long before Feld's early death from cancer is a portrait of Guston the man and of his wife Musa a major figure not only in his life but in his work a reckoning with his supremely individual achievement as an artist and a work of art in its own right A retrospective of Guston's work Philip Guston Now will be on view at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston from May 1 to September 11 2022 at the Museum of Fine Arts Houston from October 23 2022 to January 15 2023 at the National Gallery of Art Washington D C from February 26 to August 27 2023 and at the Tate Modern London from October 3 2023 to February 4 2024 What Is Contemporary Art? Terry

Smith, 2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going Sean Scully and David Carrier in Conversation David Carrier, Sean Scully, 2023-07-13 What makes a person an artist How do works of art and their very own extraordinary style come into being And how does the prominent painter view his own work The world famous painter Sean Scully met with the philosopher David Carrier for several in depth interview sessions Their conversations explore these and many more questions about Scully's life work and ideas The result is a rich manuscript that very closely approaches the status of a valid autobiography Scully provides personal insights into his life and the important sources of inspiration for his career He discusses his own view of his entire oeuvre of art history and his position within it Thus this text becomes a literal eye opener for Scully's art which can be re-discovered through his words SEAN SCULLY 1945 Dublin is one of the most famous artists of his generation In addition to numerous exhibitions worldwide he has been honored with important awards such as the Guggenheim Fellowship and Harckness Fellowship DAVID CARRIER 1944 is a philosopher and art critic His contributions to art appear in ArtForum and ArtUS among others With this interview tape he takes up an interest of his teacher Arthur C Danto whose texts on Scully were published by Hatje Cantz in 2015

The Great Parade Pierre Théberge, Galeries Nationales du Grand Palais (Paris), National Gallery of Canada, 2004-01-01 A beautiful book that showcases how circus figures and artifacts have been portrayed in art over the past two centuries The circus is a dazzling world filled with acrobats and harlequins tumblers and riders monsters and celestial creatures Now this engaging book sets that world in a new light examining how painters sculptors and photographers from the eighteenth century to the present have used the circus as a springboard for their imaginative expression and have envisioned the clown as a metaphor for the modern artist The book presents more than 175 works by such artists as Degas Toulouse Lautrec Rouault Picasso Chagall and Léger Some of these are masterful works shown for the first time these range from the 18 meter stage curtain Picasso designed in 1917 for Erik Satie's ballet Parade to more intimate works such as Nadar and Tournachon's
